officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. This clause shall include the following officers: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Second Auditor, Register of the Land Office, State Treasurer, Attorney-General, Sheriffs, Sergeant of a city or town, Commissioner of the Revenue, County Surveyors, Constables, Overseers of the Poor, Commissioner of the Board of Public Works, Judges of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Circuit Courts, Judge of the Court of Hustings, Justices of the County Courts, Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Councilmen of a city or town, Coroners, Escheators, Inspectors of Tobacco, Flour, &c., Clerks of the Supreme, District, Circuit and County Courts, and of the Court of Hustings, and Attorneys for the Commonwealth: Provided, That the Legislature may, by a vote of three-fifths of both Houses, remove the disabilities incurred by this clause from any person included therein, by a separate vote in each case.

SEC. 2. All elections shall be by ballot, and all persons entitled to vote shall be eligible to any office within the gift of the people, except as restricted in this Constitution.

SEC. 3. All persons entitled to vote and hold office, and none others, shall be eligible to sit as jurors.

SEC. 4. The General Assembly shall, at its first session under this Constitution, enact a general registration law; and every person offering or applying to register shall take and subscribe, before the officer charged with making a registration of voters, the following oath:

“I, ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am not disqualified from exercising the right of suffrage by the Constitution framed by the Convention which assembled in the city of Richmond on the third day of December, 1867, and that I will support and defend the same to the best of my ability.”

SEC. 5. No voter, during the time of holding any election at which he is entitled to vote, shall be compelled to perform military service, except in time of war or public danger, to work upon public roads, or to attend any court as suitor, juror or witness; and no voter shall be subject to arrest under any civil process during his attendance at elections, or in going to or returning from them.

SEC. 24. Judges of the supreme court of appeals and Judges of the circuit courts shall not hold any other office or public trust during their continuance in office.

SEC. 25. Judges, and all other officers elected or appointed, shall continue to discharge the duties of their offices after their terms of service have expired, until their successors have qualified.

SEC. 26. Writs shall run "in the name of the Commonwealth of Virginia," and be attested by the Clerks of the several courts. Indictments shall conclude "against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth."

ARTICLE VII.

COUNTY ORGANIZATIONS.

SEC. 1. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of the county, one Sheriff; one Attorney for the Commonwealth, who shall also be the Commonwealth's Attorney for the circuit court; one County Clerk, who shall also be the Clerk of the circuit court, except that in counties containing fifteen thousand inhabitants there may be a separate Clerk for the circuit court; one County Treasurer, and one Superintendent of the Poor. And there shall be appointed, in the manner provided for in Article VIII, one Superintendent of Schools: Provided, That counties containing less than eight thousand inhabitants may be attached to adjoining counties for the formation of districts for Superintendents of Schools: Provided, also, That in counties containing thirty thousand inhabitants there may be appointed an additional Superintendent of Schools therein. All regular elections for county officers shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, and all officers elected or appointed under this provision shall enter upon the duties of their offices on the first day of January next succeeding their election, and shall hold their offices for the term of three years, except that the county and circuit court clerks shall hold their offices for four years.

TOWNSHIPS.

SEC. 2. Each county of the State shall be divided into so many compactly located townships as may be deemed necessary, not less than three: Provided, That after three have been formed no additional township shall be made containing less than thirty square miles. Each township shall be known as the township of ———, in the county of ———, and may sue and be sued by such title. In each township there shall be elected annually: one Supervisor; one Township Clerk; one Assessor ; one Collector ; one Commissioner of Roads ; one Overseer of the Poor ; one Justice of the Peace, who shall hold his office three years ; one Constable, who shall hold his office three years : Provided, That at the first election under this provision there shall be three Justices of the Peace and three Constables elected, whose terms shall be one, two and three years, respectively. All regular elections for township officers shall take place on the fourth Thursday in May, and all officers so elected shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices on the first day of July next succeeding their election. The Supervisors of each township shall constitute the Board of Supervisors for that county, and shall assemble at the courthouse thereof on the first Monday in December in each year, and proceed to audit the accounts of said county, examine the books of the Assessors, regulate and equalize the valuation of property, fix the county levies for the ensuing year, apportion the same among the various townships, and perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by law.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

SEC. 3. Each township shall be divided into so many compactly located school districts as may be deemed necessary : Provided, That no school district shall be formed containing less than one hundred inhabitants. In each school district there shall be elected or appointed annually one School Trustee, who shall hold his office three years : Provided, That at the first election held under this provision there shall be three Trustees elected, whose terms shall be one, two and three years, respectively.

ROAD DISTRICTS.

SEC. 4. Each township shall be divided into one or more road districts. In each road district there shall be elected annually one Overseer of Roads, under whose direction the roads shall be kept in repair, at the public expense, in a mode prescribed by law.

SEC. 5. The General Assembly, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution, shall pass such laws as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this article. But nothing in this article shall be construed as prohibiting the General Assembly from providing by law for any additional officers in any city or county.

SEC. 6. Sheriffs shall hold no other office. They may be required by law to renew their security, and in default of so doing their offices shall be declared vacant. Counties shall never be made responsible for the acts of the sheriffs.
