176 [VA., 1952 ACTS OF ASSEMBLY CHAPTER 162 An Act to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 15-352.2, relating to the investigation of county officers or employees in certain counties. Approved February 29, 1952 [H 326] Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia be amended by adding a section numbered 15-352.2 as follows: § 15-352.2. The county board shall have full power to inquire into the official conduct of any office, officer or employee under its control, and to investigate the accounts, receipts, disbursements and expenses of any such office, officer or employee; for these purposes it may subpoena persons who are employees of such county as witnesses, administer oaths and require the production of books, papers and other evidence in their control; and in case any such witness fails or refuses to obey any such lawful order of the board, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. CHAPTER 163 An Act to amend and reenact § 39 of Chapter 343 of the Acts of Assembly of 1928, approved March 21, 1928, being the charter of the city of Lynchburg, the section relating to the establishment of a police and a fire department or department of public safety by providing for the appointment of special police. [H 330] Approved February 29, 1952 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: That § 39 of Chapter 343 of the Acts of Assembly of 1928, approved March 21, 1928, as amended, be amended and reenacted as follows: § 39. There shall be a police department and a fire department, which may be incorporated into one department known as the "department of public safety," with the director therefor to be appointed by the city manager. First. (a) The city manager shall, through the director of the department of public safety, if such department be established, appoint a chief of police whose duties and bond shall be such as the council may ordain. The city manager shall further, on nomination of the chief of police, through the director of the department of public safety, if such office be established, appoint such number of policemen as may be authorized by the council. (b) The chief of police and policemen appointed as hereinbefore provided, shall constitute the police force of the city and shall hold their respective positions during good behavior or until they are removed by the city manager. (c) The police force shall be under the control of the city manager for the purpose of enforcing peace and executing the laws of the State and ordinances of the city. It shall perform such other duties as the council may prescribe. For the purpose of enabling it to execute its duties, every member thereof is hereby made a conservator of the peace and endowed with the powers of a constable in criminal cases, and with such other powers under the laws of the State as may be necessary to the discharge of the duties of his office. (d) * The director of the department of public safety, if such depart-
