

<https://babel.hathitrust.org/cgi/pt?id=umn.31951d02280223t&seq=71>

Transcribed from HathiTrust, umn.31951d02280223t, 1952, ch. 49 (printed p. 67), read in the browser on 1 October 2026. This is not the page the site serves: it refuses an automated request, so what is filed is the text layer the page carries, taken as it stands. Where the transcript and the printed page could differ the printed page governs; the annotation in paper/sources.bib says which passages were read against the page image.

Acts and Joint Resolutions of the General Assembly of Virginia, 1952, ch. 49 (printed p. 67)

[seq 71, printed p. 67]

CHS. 48, 49, 50] 67 ACTS OF ASSEMBLY chapter A of Chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code as such code has been and may from time to time be amended. 2. An emergency exists and this act is in force from its passage. CHAPTER 49 An Act to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 15-360.1 providing for certain referenda in certain counties. Approved February 18, 1952 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: [S 64] 1. That the Code of Virginia be amended by adding a section numbered 15-360.1, as follows: § 15-360.1. If on or before the fifteenth day of July of any year in which such referendum is provided for by law a petition signed by two hundred or more qualified voters of the county be filed with the circuit court or judge thereof in vacation of any county having the form of government provided for in Article 3 of this chapter, asking that a referendum be held on any question upon which a referendum is provided for by any applicable statute, then such court or judge shall on or before the first day of August of such year issue and enter of record an order requiring the county election officials to open the polls at the regular election to be held in November of such year on the question stated in such statute. If the statute providing for such referendum shall authorize or require the same to be held at a special election then the petition hereinabove referred to shall be signed by one thousand or more qualified voters of the county and the court or judge shall within fifteen days of the date such petition is filed enter an order requiring the election officials to open the polls and take the sense of the qualified voters of the county on a date fixed in his order, which shall be not less than forty-five nor more than ninety days after the filing of the petition. The clerk of the county shall cause a notice of such election to be published in some newspaper published or having general circulation in the county once a week for three successive weeks, and shall post a copy of such notice at the door of the court house of such county. The election shall be held in accordance with § 24-141 of the Code of Virginia. 2. An emergency exists and this act is in force from its passage. CHAPTER 50 An Act to amend and reenact § 58-12 of the Code of Virginia as amended, relating to what property exempt from taxation. Approved February 18, 1952 [S 91] Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58-12 of the Code of Virginia as amended be amended and re-enacted as follows: §58-12. The following property shall be exempt from taxation, State and local, including inheritance taxes: (1) Property owned directly or indirectly by the Commonwealth, or any political subdivision thereof, and obligations of the Commonwealth issued since February fourteenth, eighteen hundred eighty-two, or here- after exempted by law.