Charter of the City of Richland, Washington, 1958, sections 4.04-4.05 (printed p. 12)

[seq 20, printed p. 12]

Section 4.04 Powers and Duties: The Manager shall be the head of the administrative branch of the City government. He shall be responsible to the Council for the proper administration of all City affairs under his jurisdiction. Subject to the personnel provisions of this Charter, the Manager shall: (1) Give general direction to the programs and activities of all City departments and offices under his jurisdiction. He shall prepare an administrative manual which shall set forth the procedures for carrying out such programs and activities; (2) Serve as personnel officer of the City and administer the City personnel system, unless the Council on his recommendation authorizes him to appoint a personnel officer to administer the system; (3) Appoint, and when he deems the best interests of the City require, remove officers and employees of the City unless otherwise provided by this Charter or by general laws. The Manager may authorize the head of a department or office to appoint and remove subordinates in such department or office; (4) Prepare the annual budgets, including a five-year capital expense budget, and submit them to the Council. Upon adoption of any budget by the Council, the Manager shall be responsible for its administration; (5) Prepare and submit to the Council, at the close of each fiscal year, a complete report on the finances and administrative activities of the City for the preceding year; (6) Keep the Council informed on the financial condition and present and future needs of the City, making such recommendations as he deems desirable; (7) Perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this Charter or required of him by the Council, not inconsistent with this Charter. Section 4.05 Council not to Interfere: Neither the Council nor any of its members shall direct or request the appointment of any person to, or his removal from, any office or position by the Manager or by any of his subordinates, but the Council while in official session, open or executive, may express its views and fully and freely discuss with the Manager anything pertaining to appointment and removal of City officers and employees. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the Council and its members shall deal with the administrative branch solely through the Manager, and neither the Council nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinate of the Manager, either publicly or privately. -12-
