

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1872.

THE VOTE OF VIRGINIA.—The heaviest blow which the Conservatives will have received at this Presidential Election will be the confirmation of the report that the State of Virginia has given its vote for the re-election of Gen. Grant, and the triumph of the Radical party in the Old Commonwealth. We had hoped and believed otherwise. Whatever might be the result elsewhere we believed that Virginia would have sustained the Conservative cause. If it has not done so, we admit the bitter disappointment; we acknowledge our sincere regret for the failure of our hopes and anticipations. We would have preferred a Conservative triumph in Virginia to many victories elsewhere.

It is now contended that what the President meant by a "peace policy with the Indians," was protecting and encouraging such Indian tribes as are peaceable and inclined to be so, and severely punishing those who are belligerent or disposed to raise disturbances. This, it is alleged, is the "humanitarian" side of the matter, as the President stangely styled it.

The State that the public was most deceived about, owing to trusting to the representations of heated politicians, or about which they themselves were most deceived, was New York. They miscalculated the strength of Mr. Greeley there terribly. Indeed, "as to the matter of that," Mr. Greeley's strength at the North and West was much over-rated.

Mrs. Charles Wallace, the wife of a merchant at Richmond, Virginia, has become editor of the Old Dominion Magazine, which professes the intention, if properly sustained, of giving employment to old gentlemen and old ladies who are now starving because they have no employment for their pens, which could also yield them a support.

Estimates have been made as to the number of colored men who voted for Greeley in this city and county, on Tuesday last. Some say there were ten in all—some say fifteen!! The latter estimate is generally considered too high a figure! They voted for Grant in a compact mass—and it is said many of them, because Greeley was voted for by the "white men"!

The returns from the elections, as they come in, remind us of Alexander H. Stephens' anecdote of the "general deluge," which he used to tell with great effect in old party times. It is not a shower, or a sprinkle here and there, but a universal outpour. But few States appear not to have been submerged!

Hon. John Blair Hoge has been commissioned circuit judge by Governor Jacob, to fill a vacancy in the Martinsburg (West Virginia) judicial district, caused by the resignation of Judge Hall. Mr. Hoge had already been elected judge for the next term.

The rain yesterday acted as a sedative upon the exultant feelings of those who triumphed, and gave an opportunity for calm reflection by those who were defeated, at the election the day before.

As a general rule, the Presidential election, throughout the country, was a very quiet one. The "triggers had all been set," in advance—and as the event proved, it was "an open and shut game."

The Southern Claims Commission yesterday was engaged in hearing the claim of O. W. Hunt, administrator of the estate of the late W. Hoge, of Fairfax county, Va., for $1,000 for property taken by soldiers during the war.

Thomas Sully, the artist, the friend and contemporary of Gilbert Stuart, Leslie, Rembrandt Peale, and all the older generation of American painters, died in Philadelphia on Tuesday morning.

It is quite curious to look over our exchange papers, printed the day before the election, filled with appeals and predictions, and the most glowing vaticinations, as to what would be the result. Alas! for the vanity of human wishes!

Pomeroy's paper, it is said now comes forward as an ardent supporter of Grant.

We have received this week's number of Little's Living Age, containing besides a number of excellent extracts from foreign magazines the continuation of that excellent serial "The Burgomaster's Family," translated from the Dutch by Sir John Shaw Lefevre, and of "Off the Skillicks," by Jean Ingelow; besides miscellany and poetry.

DEATH OF GEN. MEADE.—Maj. Gen. George Gordon Meade, died in Philadelphia yesterday of pneumonia. Gen. Meade was born in Cadiz Spain, of American parentage, in 1816. He received the appointment of a cadet at West point from Pennsylvania, and graduated in the class of 1835. He entered the regular army as second lieutenant of the Third Artillery, and served in the Florida war of 1835-36. He then resigned, but in 1842 was appointed second lieutenant of the topographical engineers. He was made brigadier general in August, 1862, and participated in the battles of Mechanicsville and Gaines's Mill, in the latter of which he was wounded. He was again wounded at Antietam. Shortly after his recovery he superseded General Butterfield in command of the fifth army corps. He was made commander of the Army of the Potomac June 28, 1863, and commanded at the battle of Gettysburg, on July 1 and 3, 1863. In the Richmond campaign he fought several successful battles, and on August 1864 was made major general in the regular army, and assigned to the command of the military department of the Atlantic. He was a member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania at the time of his death, and also of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences. He was honored with the title of L. L. D. by Harvard College in 1865. Deceased was 56 years old. He was a man of much dignity of character and rigid in discipline.

THE ELECTION.

The election returns come in slowly, owing to the storm which prevailed yesterday. Enough has been ascertained, however, to warrant the assertion that the Radical party has made heavy gains throughout the entire country. States that have gone for Mr. Greeley have gone by decreased majorities, as compared with the Conservative vote of last year. In Tennessee, Andrew Johnson is defeated for Congressman at Large, and Horace Maynard, Radical, is probably elected. The latest news gives Virginia to Grant by a small majority, the consequence of the apathy of the people. We lose the Richmond and perhaps the Lynchburg Districts. Gen. Hunt is elected by about 2,500 majority—running ahead of Greeley considerably. In New York the Radicals gain one Congressman from New York city, and S. S. Cox, the able debator and genial gentleman, we are sorry to say, is defeated. Fernando Wood and James Brooks are re-elected. Delaware elects a Radical Congressman, it is feared, for the first time in years, defeating C. W. Wright, the Democratic candidate. New Jersey gives some 5,000 majority for Grant. The entire West gives an unbroken electoral vote for Grant. The election in Illinois defeats Trembly's return to the Senate, and Austin Blair, the Liberal candidate for Governor of Michigan, has been beaten badly. For four years more Radical rule will prevail, and by that time, it is hoped, that all who refused to vote for Mr. Greeley, or abstained from voting at all, will not have to regret their course.

VIRGINIA.

The Congressional Districts.

In the First District the contest between Braxton, Conservative, and Sener, Radical, is very close, both parties claiming.

In the Second District Platt, Radical, is elected by a large majority.

In the Third District J. Ambler Smith, Radical, is elected by about 500 majority.

In the Fourth District Stowell, Radical, is elected by a large majority.

In the Fifth District it is thought that Thomas, Radical, is elected, though the returns are so meagre as not to allow of any certain conclusion.

In the Sixth District J. Foot Johnson, Independent, is reported elected.

Harris, Conservative, in the Seventh District is elected by a large majority.

Gen. Pappa Hutton, in this—the Eighth District, is elected by a fair majority.

In the Ninth District Bowen, Conservative, is elected over Hughes, Radical.

The Election in the City.

OFFICIAL VOTE.

Joseph Grimes, of the First Ward, E. T. Steel, of the Second Ward, Francis L. Brockett, of the Third Ward, and Wm. A. Harper, of the Fourth Ward, met at the Court House, in the clerk's office, this morning at 10 o'clock, to make an official examination, record and certificate of the vote of the recent election. The counting and examination was then proceeded with, with the following result:

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

THE GREELEY AND BROWN TICKET.

J. H. Williams	325	"	"	"
J. M. French	325	"	"	"

A voter in the Third Ward who voted a Greeley ticket scratched all the District electors off and voted for the electors at large alone, thus giving them one more vote than their associates. The purpose of this cannot be imagined.

THE GRANT AND WILSON TICKET.

The Commissioners are not required to certify the vote by Wards, and they certified accordingly the total vote of each elector in the whole town.

Taking a vote for the greater portion of the electors on any ticket as a vote for that ticket, the following is the official vote:

Greeley and Brown	1334
Grant and Wilson	1334
O'Connor and Adams	2

Every colored man and white Radical in the township voted, while a number of Conservatives remained at home and did not vote. It will be seen that Maj. Braxton leads the ticket.

Grant's majority, 33; Hutton's maj., 540.

FAIRFAX COUNTY.—But few returns have been received from this county, but it is reported that the Radical candidates have a majority of upwards of 200.

ACOTINCK.—Grant and Daniels, 138; Greeley and Hutton, 40.

CULPEPER C. H., Nov. 7.—Culpeper county gives Greeley three majority.

RICHMOND.—Grant's majority in this city is 194, while Smith's (Rad) majority over Wise (Con) for Congress is 215.

The Examiner says: "This unexpected disaster was brought upon us by the indifference of a very considerable number of whites; for while the Radicals polled their full strength we failed to do near as well."

LYNCHBURG.—This city gives Grant, 170 majority and Johnson, Ind., for Congress, 241 over Whitehead, Con.

PETERSBURG gives Grant a majority of 683, and Stowell, Rad., the same over McKinney, Con., for Congress.

ORANGE.—At Gordonsville, Greeley has a majority of 48, and Hutton 80.

IN THE CITIES AND TOWNS of Richmond, Petersburg, Norfolk, Portsmouth, Alexandria, Lynchburg, Danville, Fredericksburg and Charlottesville, Grant's majority is 1,368; Well's majority in the same was 1,083.

RICHMOND, Nov. 6.—Additional returns show increased Radical gains in the State.

Returns from this district, though incomplete, show that Smith, Radical, is elected over Wise, Democrat, by from three to four hundred majority.

Montgomery county gives Grant 101 majority, a Democratic loss of 603. This is the first county reported from the ninth district, every county in which was carried by Walker, in 1869, by handsome majorities.

Bolton county gives 325 majority for Greeley, a Democratic loss of 144.

The immense Radical gains in every section heard from justify the conclusion that Grant has carried the State.

Augusta county gives Greeley a majority of 1,000, Democratic loss 1,500; Highland county, Greeley's majority 450, Democratic loss 15; Shenandoah and Rockingham counties, Greeley's majority 2,450, Democratic loss 1,200; Hanover county, Greeley's majority 300, Democratic gain 50; Fauquier county Greeley's majority 405, Democratic loss 625.

Stafford and Spotsylvania counties, including Fredericksburg, give Greeley 925 majority, a Democratic loss of 300. Essex county gives Grant a majority of 325, a Democratic gain of 37. Richmond county, Grant 200 majority, Democratic loss 227. Westmoreland county, Grant 336 majority, Democratic loss 405. Henrico county, Grant 102 majority, Democratic loss 346. Louisa county, Grant 571 majority, Democratic loss 74. Caroline county, Greeley small majority, Democratic loss about 200.

Democratic losses are also reported in the following counties: Rockbridge 699, Loudoun 650, Prince Edward 275.

The Democrats gain, in Dinwiddie 146, Essex 37, Petersburg 279.

Complete and partial returns from forty-seven counties show an excess of republican gains on the Walker majority of 1869 of nearly 9,000.

The following dispatches were received in Washington at an early hour this morning.

PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 6.—Fourteen counties give a gain of 8,000 on the vote of 1869. This ratio carried through the State will give us Virginia by over 20,000.
