

THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 5, 1892.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section cloudy weather and local rains, but probably fair during the greater portion of Wednesday and slightly warmer.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.—The weather nearly all of Sunday was hot, with a strong southerly wind. Late in the evening clouds gathered in the south-west and a refreshing shower resulted. Subsequently there was another rainfall heavier than the first, and by the time the churches were closed the wind had changed to the northwest and the temperature began to fall. By yesterday morning the air was much cooler; the heavens were clear and a stiff north-west wind was prevailing. The number who had retired to rest with the wish that the Fourth would be characterized by pleasant weather were all the full fruition of their hopes, and before the sun had barely peeped over the Maryland hills private excursion parties in joyous anticipation of a day's outing, with ice and every other picnic adjunct, could be seen wending their way toward the river, upon which they soon embarked for quiet spots on the Potomac's bank where they could eat, drink and nap far from the maddening crowd. Other parties utilized vehicles for the purpose of conveying themselves and ladders to rural retreats where they could while away the national holiday in princely style. Later in the morning the steamers began their trips. They were heavily laden with old and young, the decks being as densely packed with human freight as the limbs of a tree upon which a swarm of bees had settled. And all looked happy; the swains with their countenances aglow, and their fair companions, with ribbons fluttering to the breeze, smiling and chatting and apparently as oblivious to the cares of mundane existence as skylarks. The excursion trains also were well patronized. Those who preferred strolling had mapped out their programmes the previous night, and some played baseball to their hearts' content, rode on flying horses or burned powder all day long, while others contented themselves with making friendly calls. It seemed as though everything that could make a noise was brought into requisition from the traditional key cannon up. As the sun sank in the west the excursionists, some much bedraggled, waded their slow lengths homeward, and when night set in the festive and explosive was continued, augmented by roman candles, rockets, spinning wheels, chasers and divers colored lights. As the hours grew late the firing became desultory, and at longer intervals between shots until the mantle of midnight fell over the city and silence once more reigned. But few things occurred to mar the festivities, and they were mostly minor affairs, cases where some enthusiasm, exhilarated or stimulated too much. As anticipated Saturday, business was generally suspended, the majority of the community having concluded to take a "day off," and taken all in all, the Fourth of July, 1892, was an enjoyable affair.

FIRE.—About three o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was sounded, caused by the discovery that the building on the north side of King street, between St. Asaph and Washington, occupied by Mr. M. S. Parker as a store and dwelling, was on fire. The police saw smoke issuing from the second-story windows of the building and aroused the occupants, consisting of Mr. Parker, his wife and child. By the time they became sensible of their danger, smoke was pouring from the front windows, and so dense was it in the house that the trio became much affected before they reached the pure air. The fire had originated in the back part of the second story of the main building, and is supposed to have been started by a fire cracker. Mr. Parker had occupied the house as a music store and residence recently, and in the fire, picture frame mouldings, a feather bed, clothing, &c., were destroyed, involving a loss of about $1,200. The stock was insured for $1,000 in a Northern company which has no agency here. The building was not seriously damaged, paper and plastering suffering mostly, while the floor of the room in which the fire started is somewhat burned. The building, which was designed with water, belongs to Mrs. Wesley Mabley, and was for many years used as a confectionery. It is insured in the Alexandria Insurance Company. The police, upon discovering the fire, procured a hose carriage and had the flames under control before the engines could get to work. The alarm of fire about 9 o'clock last night was caused by the burning of a toy balloon, which fell on the roof of the office of Dr. Brown, near the corner of Washington and Columbus streets. No damage was done.

SAD MORTALITY.—Since Saturday night twelve households in Alexandria have been darkened by death—nine white and three colored children having terminated their brief missions since that time. Last night the infants of Messrs. E. H. Kemper, S. M. Dent and Jas. E. Johnston died, and since Saturday the children of Messrs. C. H. Goodrich, Goings, Beach, Hall, Scott, and Geiss have died. In addition to these 3 colored infants have died since Saturday. This is an especially trying time of the year to infants, and numbers are undergoing the ordeal of babyhood, thereby causing parents much anxiety. It is said that one-half of those born die during the dentition period, or about the time when their innocent cooing or "crowing" renders them so interesting, and that one-half of those who pass through the crisis of infancy never attain the age of thirty. Though the efforts of our fellow creatures are unavailing in these crushing afflictions, the fact that those who die so young escape the heartaches and sorrows of mature years should be some solace at least when, in the language of an immortal poet,

The pearls gazed on their musical tongues,
And angels ministrant take from fond arms
Tender yew lambs to nurture them in heaven.

THE FOURTH AT FALLS CHURCH.—The Fourth of July celebration at Falls Church was a success in every particular and the programme as published on Friday was fully carried out. Addresses were made and games, &c., indulged in. The new Old Fellows hall was dedicated by Grand Master Stansbury, of this city, and Past Grand J. B. Blanks, of Petersburg. Numbers of Old Fellows from this city and Washington took part in the ceremonies. At night there was a fine display of fireworks.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with six prisoners at the station house.

Since Saturday the Mayor has disposed of the following cases, to-day being kept busy for a long time chiefly with the Fourth of July drunks:

Henry Arnold, colored, disorderly conduct; a white man drunk and disorderly; Jno. Bright assault on Margie Pendleton, colored; Fred Harris, colored, adultery; Richard Washington, colored, assault on Lucy Williams; Preston Roberts and Richard Warder, throwing stones in the street; Stephen Machor, drunk and disorderly; Abe Brown, colored, assault on Ed. Rowe, also colored, were each fined $5.

A resident of the Second ward for being drunk and disorderly; a white woman, disorderly conduct; a white woman, disturbing a religious meeting; Louise Gathright, colored, adultery; Jno. Armstrong and Jas. Coplin, colored, disorderly conduct; Andrew Lomax, colored, disorderly conduct; Isaac and Alice Hachy, colored, disorderly conduct and Henson Dudley, colored, disturbing the peace, were discharged.

Ed. Porter, colored, assault on Dan Gurdy, was fined $3.

Frank Summers, for threatening language, was bound over in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for 6 months.

Louise and Pat Gathright, colored, for fighting; Annie Freeman and Peter Simms, colored, disorderly conduct; six young white men and Willis Anderson, colored, disorderly conduct in a colored woman's house, and Pearl and Irene Robinson, disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

Wm. Dudley, colored, assault on Edna Dudley, was fined $10.

Virginia Meade, Melina Swallow, disorderly conduct, were fined $1.50 each.

A white boy, for an assault on another boy, was fined $1.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Thos. L. Rosser, Jr., of Albemarle, was in the city yesterday. He came to look into the matter of constructing the south Royal street sewer.

It is reported that Count Eugene de Mikiewicz, who is well-known in this city, has just won $23,000 at the Sheepshead Bay race track. This pays better than diplomacy or heathen banking concessions.

The Petersburg Appeal says: "Mr. W. L. Hayes, who is now a student of Richmond College, was in the city a few days ago. He left Friday for Alexandria, where he will spend his summer vacation preaching at that place."

Mrs. T. W. Ashby has returned from Richmond.

Rev. Charles E. Buck, of Maryland, has been called as pastor of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, Georgetown, D. C. A. Registrar, resigned.

Mr. Buck recently officiated at St. John's Church. He is about thirty-five years old and a graduate of the Theological Seminary near this city.

Mr. C. L. Powell has gone to Calletts Station to spend the summer.

Dr. Charles Milton Buchanan, late professor of chemistry and physics of the Capitol Hill High School, Washington, and Miss Annie Meade Randolph Lee, of Virginia were married at Epiphany Church, Washington, Thursday evening.

The Elmhurst papers announce the marriage on the 23d ultimo at the residence of the bride's mother, Miss Amelia Miller, of E. Rector Lowe, of Washington, son of the late Capt. David A. Lowe, of this city. The bride is an heiress, and daughter of the late Hon. Emma Miller, of Elmira, N. Y. After an elaborate entertainment and congratulations of 100 guests, the bridal party left for an extended tour through the world.

Miss Virginia Fleming, who has been seriously ill for some time past, was considered slightly better to-day.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chichester presiding. The account of the estate of Wm. Gray, deceased, with Alfred Peters was filed.

Taber Johnson, M. R. Horton, R. Walker, C. S. Bradley and S. M. Dodd were appointed to look into the matter of the establishment of a road from the Aqueduct Bridge along the river to the military road.

The application for a hotel license near the Chain Bridge was held under advisement.

The application of W. H. Yeatman for a pension as a disabled Confederate soldier was approved.

C. H. Wibirt qualified as deputy county treasurer.

Court adjourned for the term.

The appointment of a supervisor for Washington district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of W. G. Wilson, colored, will be made during vacation.

RUNAWAYS.—The horses attached to the wagon of Mr. E. A. Thompson became frightened yesterday evening at some fire-crackers, and running away, were not stopped till they reached the opposite side of Hunting creek bridge. The wagon and harness were considerably damaged. The driver requested the boys who discharged the fire-crackers to desist till he could pass them, but they persisted in frightening the horses.

The horse attached to a lumber wagon ran off on Columbus street, between Cameron and Queen, this morning, and the colored driver, who held on to the lines, was dragged some distance and finally run over. He was not much hurt, however.

STORM IN FAIRFAX.—A subscriber at Clifton writes: "On the 30th at 12:30 p. m. this section was visited by one of the most terrific hail, wind and rain storms ever experienced by our oldest inhabitants. On the farms of Judge Fullerton, Rev. Wm. B. Otis and Elias Kincheole, the oats, corn and grass gardens were beaten in the ground. Immense trees, centuries old on the Kincheole farm, were blown down and twisted off, and the hail covered the ground an inch in depth, windows were smashed and what little fruit was on the trees was thrashed off. The violence of the storm lasted an hour."

U. S. COURT.—Judge R. W. Hughes presiding. The grand jury was called, but the District Attorney having no business to present the jury was adjourned.

J. T. Bruce vs. steamer Geo. Law; in admiralty; judgment for libellant for $50.50 and cost.

Court adjourned till to-morrow, when the case of Eli Carter, colored, for robbing the mail in King George county, will be tried.

NEW BRIDGE.—The new iron bridge to be erected over Cameron Run at Edman's is being hurried to that place and will soon be placed in position. This will be a great convenience to the residents of that section of Fairfax county as well as to those of our citizens who go in that direction for business or pleasure.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. G. S. Ellis, secretary, advertises an important State debt notice to-day.

The Alexandria Musical Association will give an excursion to River View on the 15th.

On Sunday last 17 persons were admitted to Trinity M. E. Church on probation—14 young ladies and 3 gentlemen.

The excise board has approved the application of George Benson for a license to sell liquor at the corner of King street and the Strand.

Rev. Father James Cotting, S. J., of White Marsh, Prince George's county, Md., died at Georgetown College on Saturday at the age of 80 years.

Mr. Craven Peyton in attempting to board a train at the south end of the Long bridge yesterday evening fell through the truss and was badly hurt.

Mr. Ernest Herbert laughs at the report that he attempted suicide yesterday by taking laudanum. He says he frequently has to take laudanum when suffering with pain.

Judge Keith has refused to enjoin the city from making a deal for a lot on Princess street between Royal and Fairfax, formerly belonging to Theo. Teed and recently sold to W. H. Smith for taxes.

Miss Cordelia H. Dyer, daughter of the late Francis Dyer, and sister of the late John F. Dyer of this city, died in Washington on Saturday, and to-day her remains were brought here for interment.

During a storm last week two cows belonging to Mr. J. M. Johnson, of this city, were struck by lightning in his farm in Prince William county, and killed. They were insured in the Fairfax Mutual Company.

The usual number of accidents from the explosion of powder occurred in this city yesterday, but fortunately none was very serious. Among those who were burned were Messrs Lewis Adams and Edward Shock.

The schooner Strann, whose captain, J. C. Marshall, is now rapidly recovering from smallpox, on Saturday evening weighed anchor off Fort Foot, and cruised about the river for some time. She finally came to anchor again off Jones's Point where she is now lying.

On Saturday Drs. T. M. Jones and W. R. Purvis, of this city, assisted by Dr. Taylor, of the Children's Hospital of New York city, performed a very difficult but in every way successful operation upon the infant child of Mr. J. Brooke Arnold.

Frank W. Heygster, tried for the murder of John F. Horrigan, was acquitted in Washington on Saturday, the jury following the precedents of scores of American juries and determining that an injured husband may slay the companion in guilt of his wife.

A democratic meeting was held at Grange Camp, Fairfax county, yesterday, at which speeches were made by members of Congress Long, of Texas; Alexander, of North Carolina; Youmans, of Michigan; Boatner, of Louisiana, and E. E. Meredith, of Virginia.

R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, held its regular monthly meeting last night, Commander W. A. Smoot presiding, when three new members were elected. The committee on uniform reported the progress made in their work and other business of a private nature was transacted.

The committee selected to provide for the building fund of St. Mary's Church held a session at the Lyceum Hall Sunday, Mr. M. B. Harlow in the chair, and arranged for monthly collections in aid of that fund. A plan of the new church front and extension was exhibited in the vestibule of the church and attracted much attention.

The corner stone of Mount Jezreel (colored) Church, on north Payne street, was laid Sunday evening. The church has been built for sometime. The corner stone was laid by the colored Free Masons, John Montgomery, deputy grand master of the grand lodge of colored Masons of Virginia, performing the Masonic ceremonies, and Rev. Wm. Gray, of Washington, preached a sermon on the occasion. A large crowd of colored people attended.

The sun now rises about 4:15 o'clock and sets about 7:30 o'clock, making the days somewhat over 15 hours in length. Before the month closes we shall find that our daylight has been reduced by an hour from what it was at the time of the summer solstice. There is a difference in declination of 5 degrees as the sun moves toward the equator and his speed visibly increases at the end of the month, his motion then being three times as rapid as it is to-day.

Mrs. J. Caltuter, Maple Grove, Md., says: "Stonebreaker's Liver Pills is the best medicine I ever tried for sick headache. Price, 25 cts."

A Little Pleasant Rivalry with a Solid Substratum.

We will give two inches of advertising space for six months in the Alexandria Gazette to the advertiser who shall lay out and pay for the largest amount of our shoes between the first of March and the first of September, 1892, provided only that our shoes are mentioned in each issue of the space for the period named. Three months to second best buyer; six weeks to third largest. This simply illustrates our anxiety to have every lady and child in Alexandria walk in Alexandria-made shoes. We will see that the ladies need never blush to say that their shoes are home-made, and if economy is wealth, we venture nothing in guaranteeing you wealth as wearers of our shoes.

63-22 cor. THE POTOMAC SHOE COMPLY.

Mand S., and the greatest horses of the turf, were rubbed after each race with Stonebreaker's Liniment, and fed Stonebreaker's Horse and Cattle Powder.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

New York, July 5.—The stock market opened after the holidays with considerable activity, but the increased business was at the expense of quotations, the silver bill inducing free realizations in some stocks and in the early dealings decided weakness marked the trading in all the leading shares. The opening was made at material losses from Friday's closing figures. The downward movement continued till near the end of the hour when the selling became less urgent but there was no recovery of note and at 11 o'clock the market was quiet while barely steady at close to the lowest prices reached.

BALTIMORE, July 5.—Virginia consols — do 10-40s — do 3s 73 3/4 73 1/2 bid.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, July 5.—The markets opened to-day without change in prices for Flour. Wheat is still weak and easy—the offerings are all of the new crops, and are mostly of indifferent quality; sales 65, 68, 73, 75, 78 and 80 for badly damaged warm wet samples to fair, 80 to 85 for good to prime. Corn is firm at 60 to 61. Rye 70 to 75. Oats 38 to 40. Butter, Eggs, Onions, Potatoes and other produce are in demand at quotations.

Chicago, July 5, 12:45 p. m.—Wheat—July 75 1/2 bid. Sept 75 1/2 bid. Corn—July 51 1/2 bid. Sept 49 1/2 bid. Oats—July 33 1/2 bid. Pork—July 111 1/2 bid. Sept 111 1/2 bid. Lard—Sept 27 1/2 bid. Short ribs—Sept 57 1/2 bid.
