

LOCAL NEWS.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 15, 1895.

Sun rises to-morrow at 7:15; and .et 4:45. High water 11:55 a. m. and 0.00 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this week a fair to-day and to-night, followed by fine, with occasional showers and probably rain Wednesday; warmer, southerly winds, shifting to easterly.

ORGANIZED.—The organization of the Alexandria Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals took place with flying colors last night at Pea body Building.

The number in attendance was far beyond the most sanguine expectations of the most interested friends. It is estimated that at least 300 people were present to enjoy the evening.

Mr. K. Kemper kindly acted as temporary chairman and conducted the meeting in his usual efficient and agreeable manner, and Mr. Greenaway filled the office of secretary most acceptably.

Early in the meeting Capt. J. P.
Woody, one of the society's warmest and best friends, made a number of excellent explanations regarding the society's aims and objects.

The following officers were elected: President, Henry Strauss; 1st Vice President, Capt. J. P. Woody; 2d do, J. W. Burke; 3d do, Capt. Geo. A.
Mushbach; 4th do, M. B. Harlow; 5th do, K. Kemper; Secretary, N. S.
Greenaway; Treasurer, Thos. Lead-beater; Directors, Worth Hulihf, Geo.
R. Hill, Noble Lindsey, Thos. S. Robinson, Robt. F. Knox, Miss Sallie Stuart, Mrs. Frank Daley, Mrs. G.
Wm. Ramsay, Mrs. Geo. A. Mushbach, Miss Lucy F. Fawcett.

After reading the Virginia State law regarding cruelty to animals it was shown that the object of this society was not to be a law into itself, but to carry out the most excellent State law, which has been very much neglected, and the society desires the most hearty support and co-operation of the authorities and citizens of the city of Alexandria.

Resolutions of hearty thanks were offered to the sweet singers and players of the evening, who so kindly and successfully entertained the company.

The first of the musical entertainment was a solo by Mr. Hatley Norton, with accompaniment by Mrs. Barker, which was greatly enjoyed. The company was further entertained by Mr.
Win. H. Starnell, as pianist, with a quartet consisting of Mrs. Edward Nails, Miss Effie Tyler, Mr. Urban Lambert and Mr. Phil. Dempsey, who rendered beautifully "Moonlight on the Lake," and were followed by the Mandolin Club, whose efforts were most fully appreciated by the audience.
Then came a solo, "Fancies," from Miss Effie Tyler, whose sweet, clear voice gave delight to the audience.

It was moved and seconded to make the editors and proprietors of the Alexandria newspapers honorary members of this society.

A last treat from the Mandolin Club closed the entertainment.

The society starts out under very favorable circumstances, having already a membership of one hundred, most of whom are prominent and representative Alexandrians.

THE RACE TRACKS.—The movement against the Alexander Island inquiry is what we were sure the Governor would make when he had his attention called to the matter. The Executive and Attorney-General will show their mistake to those who think Virginia a suitable place for blacklegs and gamblers. The injunction may be suspended or may fail, but the movement has begun and will not stop until the cancer is cut out. The law under which the mud and snow races have been run for the benefit of the bookmakers and other gamblers was itself a huge mistake, to say the least of it. The enactment of such a law was a mistake in some, a crime in others, and a wrong against society in all who had any part in its passage. The repeal of this law would of itself justify an extra session of the Legislature. No one can estimate the harm that is done the character and reputation of the State by the existence—conspicuous and brazen—of the Old Dominion and St. Asaph gambling, under the protection and sanction of law. We are told that unless bookmaking was allowed all horse racing would be stopped. We did not believe it for a moment, but its falsity has been proven by the unprecedented entries for races for the coming season in New York, where bookmaking and such like gambling is forbidden by the Constitution.

The vice of gambling is the parent of every other vice, and the toleration of it leads to the complete corruption of all officials whose duty it is to enforce the law and suppress vice. No one who knows anything of municipal police and has sense enough to count ten will deny this.—Richmond Times.

THE FIRE AT THE GAS WORKS. Yesterday afternoon was the result of an explosion. An attempt had been made to disconnect a six inch pipe leading from the gas holders for the purpose of freeing it from water. Through some neglect those engaged in the work did not turn off the flow from the retorts to the holders, and a stream of unpurified gas began to pour into the room.
It soon reached a jet which was burning and an explosion followed. Messrs.
Thomas Fones and John Mullin, employees at the works, threw mud into the opening and endeavored to extinguish the flames, and finally, at the instance of Mr. Albert Cogan, the gas was turned off by a stop cock in an adjoining room. Mr. Fones was painfully burned on the face and neck and Mr.
Mullin on the hands. The damage will not be over $75.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Maud, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. Jacob Brown, who lives on South Fairfax street, was the victim of a serious accident yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Brown was engaged at the time in fitting some straw matting in a room when the door bell rang. The little girl, who had a pair of scissors in her hand, started to follow her mother to the door and fell, when the point on one of the blades of the scissors penetrated deeply into her right eye. The unfortunate child shrieked piteously, and when picked up a stream of blood literally spouted from the injured eye. The hemorrhage was stayed as much as possible until the arrival of Dr. Klipstein, who rendered surgical aid. It is feared the little one will lose the sight of her eye.

The clothing of Miss Hollice Essex, who lives on South street, near Thirty-second street, Georgetown, caught fire Sunday afternoon from a gasoline stove, and burned her so badly that she cannot recover.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M.
Norton presiding.—Emma E. Crump vs.
Thos. R. Crump, decree for absolute divorce. The divorce was granted on grounds of adultery and the plaintiff is allowed to resume her maiden name, Emma E. Arnell, and is given the custody of her children, Grace and Helen.
The estate of Alice E. Mason was committed to W. H. Smith, sergeant, for administration.

The civil docket was called and cases set.
The following cases against the Farmers and Mechanics' Insurance Company were dismissed: Hall and Haywood, S. P. Gray, Norwich Shook and Lumber Co., J. W. Hickman, E.
R. Burns, and the Phillips Glass Co.
The case of J. H. Moyer vs. the Planters' Insurance Company was also dismissed.

The criminal docket was also called and all the cases set for the 29th.

The grand jury will meet again tomorrow.

Judge Norton also granted an amendment to the charter of the Mc-Lachlen & Batchelder Company, changing its name to the McLachlen Real Estate and Loan Company and extending its limit to perpetuity.

Judge Norton also granted an amendment to the charter of the Cincinnati Gas Company, changing its name to the United States Gas Company and making several other changes.

Judge Norton granted a charter to the Washington Ice Manufacturing Co., the object of which is to make and sell ice. The capital stock is $30,000 and G. H. H. Moore, of Washington, is president. Mr. K. Kemper is the agent in this city.

MEETINGS.—The Independent Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Fairfax county held their annual meeting yesterday and re-elected the old directors.
The report of the affairs of the company showed an increase of insurance during the year of $92,218; number of policies written during the same period, 533; losses paid, $8,575.90. Of this amount $78.14 was paid in Alexandria. C. Lukens was elected president, Walter Roberts treasurer, R. H. Havener secretary, C. Lukens, J. W. Roberts and C. F. Wilkins executive committee.

The stockholders of the Commercial Investment Company met in this city yesterday and re-elected the old officers.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Consolidated Quarry Company was held in this city yesterday evening, when directors were elected.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the McLachlen Real Estate and Loan Company met in this city to-day and re-elected the old directors, who subsequently met and re-elected the following officers: F. R. Horner, president; J. F. Batchelder, vice president; A. M.
McLachlen, treasurer; J. M. Hood, secretary, who with W. H. Owens and T. H. Bear are the directors. The reports of the officers show the company to be in a flourishing condition.

FRIENDSHIP CORNET CORPS.—At a meeting of the Friendship Cornet Corps held last night considerable routine business was transacted, after which the following officers were elected: President, W. S. Harper; secretary, D.
E. Robey; financial secretary, G. M.
Myers; treasurer, M. F. Padgett; Marshals, M. F. Padgett and James Man-field; file instructor, W. S. Harper; cornet instructor, G. M. Myers; drum instructor, Benj. Scrivener. The following were appointed a committee on absentees: M. F. Padgett, John F.
Dunnington and Walter Goebel. This corps was organized less than a year ago, but it has gained an enviable reputation, both at home and in the different cities it has visited, and has the support of every organization for which it has played.

MARLEY ENCAMPMENT.—The Marley Encampment held a very interesting meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, last night. The royal purple and golden rule degrees were conferred on two candidates, and after some routine business they installed the following officers for the ensuing term:
C. P. C. W. O'Meara; H. P. R. Robey; S. W. W. M. Davis; J. W. J. E. Swain; Scribe, W. E. Latham; Treasurer, P.
M. Bradshaw; F. W. J. P. E. Cliff; S. W.
M. W. Bontz; T. W. Geo. Whitten; F.
W. T. M. Brisey; Guide, Wm. Darley; F. G. T. G. W. Johnson; S. G. T.
Lorenz Pope; O. S. G., E. H. Hammond; I. S. G., A. J. Butcher.

A NEW CITY DIRECTORY.—The canvass for material for a directory was started this morning, and the book when completed will be worth having.
Richmond & Co., who have here as their local manager Mr. W. L. Richmond, are well known throughout the south as directory publishers, and have a reputation for producing directories that are as near perfect as is possible.
Mr. W. L. Richmond has long been connected with directory work in the southern States, and having had such an extended experience, a first class directory can be assured. The business public can well afford to patronize this work, for it will be a reliable publication and just what is needed.

THE MOSBY REUNION.—The arrangements for the reunion and banquet of the survivors of Mosby's command have all been completed and the programme as heretofore published, will be carried out. The meeting for organization will be held at the Odd Fellows' Hall tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and the banquet will be spread at the same hall in the evening at 6 o'clock. Col. Mosby, Major Richards and Capt. W. H.
Chapman will be present and the reunion will be made a joyous occasion, as some of the men have never met since the war.

OFFICIAL VISIT.—Grand Chancellor E. P. Holoe, of Virginia, with the G. M. of E. will make an official visit to the Knights of Pythias of this city on next Thursday night, on which occasion there will be a regular meeting of Mechanics' Lodge. Of course members of the other two lodges—Oriental and Alexandria—will be present. D. D. G. C.
Ernest B. Boyer has been officially notified of this proposed visit by Grand Chancellor Holoe, who with the G. M.
E. will reach this city from Richmond about noon on Thursday.

FOUND DEAD.—Mrs. Mary Ann Reed was found dead in her residence, at Roslyn, on Sunday morning. The deceased lived alone, being in easy circumstances, and it is supposed she was stricken with apoplexy. When discovered her body was found to be frozen. Mrs. Reed was apparently as well as ever Saturday evening. She has a son living in New Jersey.

CHARTERS.—Judge Norton to-day granted amendments to the charter of the Brown Automatic Car Coupler Company, according to resolutions adopted at a meeting of the company held in this city last week. The capital stock was increased to $500,000.

APPOINTMENT.—Mayor Strauss today appointed Mr. E. C. Dunn City Surveyor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. H. C. Graves.
The appointment will hold till Council elects.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The infant son of Mr. Charles Smith died last night.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

Col. C. F. E. Richardson, an old and respected resident of Washington, died yesterday.

The funeral of the late Jeremiah Long took place from St. Mary's Church this morning.

Capt. A. J. Fair recently fished out of the river, near Shepherd's, an axe which must be about a hundred years old.

The regular weekly meeting and drill of the Alexandria Light Infantry was held in the armory last night and was well attended.

Mrs. Jane Hawhurst, widow of John Hawhurst, a former resident of Falls Church, died last Saturday at her home in Brooklyn.

The Charlottesville Chronicle says Mr. C. W. Hollish, of the well-known wholesale grocery firm of Charles King & Son, Alexandria, has opened an office in this city.

Messrs. Craig and Harding, furniture dealers, of Washington, made an assignment yesterday for the benefit of their creditors; assets $55,691.52, liabilities $62,288.77.

A slight fire occurred at an early hour this morning at the residence of Mr. Sidney Hamersley, near the local depot, but the damage was trifling and no alarm was sounded.

The District of Columbia Commissioners issued an order yesterday for the removal of obstructions from the streets of the city. Under the police will clear away all fruit stands and other obstructions and will make an entire change in the appearance of Louisiana avenue.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Edgar S.
Gregg, of Fauquier county, and Jennie M. Cleveland, of Fairfax county; Andrew Schulze, of St. Louis, Mo., and Bertha Kroschke, of Shiloh, and to Robert P. Vermillion and Gertrude Eubank, both of Richmond.

The request of H. B. Moulton and F.
L. Morling, of Baltimore, to continue the business of the Fidelity Building and Loan Association under the direction of the court was denied yesterday by Justice Cox, in Washington, as impracticable, and instructions were given for the closing up of the business.

T. Curry, owner, and the horse El Telegrafo were ruled out yesterday at the Alexander Island course. El Telegrafo is broken-winded, and ran with a tube. His other races had been run without a tube and the officials took summary action after El Telegrafo had won the race. Jockey Coleman was at first ruled off for his ride on Dashing Charlie on Saturday, but subsequently reinstated.

A horse attached to a lumber wagon, belonging to Messrs. Snoot & Co., ran away at the Alexandria Brick Works this morning and was not stopped till it reached the corner of Pitt and Queen streets. A part of the wagon was left at the brick works and with the front portion the horse pursued its course through almost the entire length of Pitt street, during which several other vehicles were struck, but only slight damage was done to them.

Secretary McIntyre of the Virginia Jockey Club has prepared the conditions for the stakes which are to run for at the St. Asaph track during April and May. The stakes are guaranteed, and should there be any overplus in any of them it will be added and divided in the proportion of 50, 30, and 20 per cent to the first, second and third horses. Each stake is of $1,000; $10 to accompany the entries, and $30 additional for starters, the winner to receive $700, $200 to the second and $100 to the third.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY.
Dr. B. F. Hance is building a handsome brick house in the county about two miles west of Washington.

The public schools of the county are progressing well, and it is understood that a competitive examination will be held about the last of the session between the scholars of the different schools.

The question of building a large brick graded school house at Del Ray, in the southern part of the county, will be considered and decided at the meeting of the County School Board that convenes about March 1.

Dr. L. W. Ritchie, of Georgetown, has purchased of Peter T. Birch, fourteen acres of land in Alexandria county, between the Aqueduct bridge and the village of Ballston. It is understood that Dr. Ritchie will subdivide this tract and that he will erect several houses there during the coming summer.

A petition is being circulated in the county asking the Senators and Representatives from Virginia to press the passage of a law for the sale of 1,100 acres in the Arlington reservation, and to apply the proceeds to the construction of the memorial bridge from Washington to Arlington. It is estimated that 500 acres is as much land as the government needs for the cemetery, Fort Myer and park purposes, and that with a bridge the 600 acres of surplus land would bring much more than enough to construct a bridge of the most beautiful and costly design.

The Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company is pushing the building of its road from Alexandria city northward toward the Aqueduct bridge, and the authorities of the road say they expect to reach that point by May or June next. The Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railroad Company are also grading their road from the Aqueduct bridge to the Arlington estate and surveying and obtaining the rights of way from land owners from Arlington to Falls Church. Mr. R.
Henry Phillips is the manager of the last mentioned road, and is pushing the matter with great vigor. Both of the roads will converge at the Virginia end of the Aqueduct bridge, when a concerted and determined effort will be made to obtain the right to widen the bridge and cross it with their cars, so as to get into the new central depot now being erected in Georgetown at the north end of the Aqueduct bridge.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Philadelphia Ledger says of Gus Hill's World of Novelties: "The show is a good one. The feature of the excellent entertainment was the performance of John R. Hart, the juggler. Estelle Wellington, an attractive little miss, does well in her character dances. Bryant and Saville give their comic musical performance, and play well on a variety of queer instruments.
Marion and Bell are pleasing in their character delineations and songs. The two big features were Gus Hill, the world renowned clown, juggler, and juggler, and the human corkscrew. Throughout the show is a good one indeed. The fact is certified by the applause and laughter which greeted the large audience present."
