TOMORROW'S ELECTION

But Little Interest Manifest in Alexandria City—The County Greatly Excited Over the Outcome.

The election for a member of the State Senate from this district and a member of the House of Delegates from this city and county will be held tomorrow. R. Ewell Thornton, the present incumbent, is the candidate to succeed himself, he being the regular democratic nominee. He is being opposed by A. J. Wedderburn, an independent candidate. Robinson Moncure is also the regularly declared candidate of the party to succeed himself in the House of Delegates. He has no opposition. The election is causing no special interest in this city. The polls will be opened at sunrise (6:31) tomorrow morning and close at sunset (4:57) in the evening. The saloons will close at six o'clock this evening and remain closed until six o'clock Wednesday morning.

The judges for tomorrow's election are as follows:

First ward: C. P. Waller, O. W. Phillips and C. W. Mander.

Second ward: Theo. Cook, Conrad Schwab and Lawrence F. Clark.

Third ward: F. M. Penn, E. J. Fleming and Joseph Ewald.

Fourth ward: Claude Lennon, Eugene Igoo and John Brenner.

While but little interest is being manifested in this city in the election, Alexandria county has been stirred for sometime, and one of the most exciting contests ever known in that jurisdiction has just closed. Two of the county officers—E. Wade Ball, the treasurer, and J. M. Willis, the overseer of poor—are without opposition. The recent withdrawal of James E. E. Clements leaves Crandal Mackey, the commonwealth's attorney, with but one opponent, R. C. L. Moncure. George H. Rucker, clerk of the courts, is opposed by Harry R. Thomas, former deputy clerk, and E. E. Wilson, while Curtis B. Graham, the commissioner of revenue, has four opponents, Frederick S. Corbett, W. H. Duncan, Robert F. Crowley and Arthur W. Veitch.

William H. Palmer, the sheriff, has for his opponent Jacob E. Birch. One supervisor is to be chosen in each district. The candidates are Edward Dunbar and William Kidwell, in Jefferson district; W. C. Wilbert and R. Gordon Finney, in Arlington district, and R. L. Walker, W. N. Febrey, and Charles V. Grunwell, in Washington district. There are many candidates for the office of magistrate and constable in the various districts.

COLDER WEATHER COMING.

Rainbow in Western Heavens This Morning is Gazed Upon by Early Risers.

Pronounced weather changes throughout the United States are predicted by the Weather Bureau in its forecast for the week.

"In the United States the coming week will be one of pronounced weather changes. Disturbances that now cover the Rocky mountains and British Columbia will advance slowly eastward and be preceded by unsettled weather, local rains and mild temperature the first half of the week in the Middle West and the Southern and Eastern states; rains are also probable Monday and Tuesday in the North Pacific states. Following this disturbance the pressure will rise rapidly and decidedly colder weather will overspread the Northwestern states Tuesday and Wednesday and advance eastward over the Middle Wednesday and Thursday and the Eastern states the latter part of the week. It is probable that this cold change will be attended by snows in the Northern states."

A beautiful rainbow spanned the western heavens at an early hour this morning. Later there was a light shower of rain.

Yesterday was an ideal day and the river and country resorts were thronged with people.
