ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

THE GAZETTE

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 24.

STAUNTON.—A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writes:

"Our City Council some time since appointed a committee for the re-assessment of property in the city before making a tax levy for the coming fiscal year. The report of this committee shows an increase over the assessment of 1872 of $1,320,700. A few valuations by the committee are as follows: Virginia Hotel, $30,000, American $27,000, Episcopal Institute $30,000, Mozart Hall $20,000, Wesleyan Female Institute $27,000, Jno. B. Baldwin's residence $20,000, Dr. B. B. Donaghee's residence $20,000, Wm. Frazier's residence $20,000. The prices put upon the above named properties show a rapid advance in values, and in every case would bring more than the amount if sales were desired.

The Coral Marble Company mentioned in my last is attracting a good deal of attention. Upon an examination immense quantities of the finest gray, pink, variegated and black marble are found of the purest type. The company will proceed at once to open the quarry and put upon the market the marble. The quarry lies in the mountains, near Craigsville depot, twenty-three miles above Staunton, on the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. The inhabitants have used this stone for building chimneys, fences, &c., and in some cases houses, believing it to be a superior quality of limestone, and those who built houses were totally unaware they "dwelt in marble halls." I have heard it estimated that one man had $500 worth of this valuable stone in one chimney.

ARLINGTON TURNPIKE.—The Arlington Turnpike Company was incorporated by the Virginia Legislature April, 1867, for the purpose of constructing a turnpike road from the southern terminus of the Long Bridge to Bailey's cross-roads. The annual meeting of the company was held last evening at the Columbia School building, Mr. L. W. Crocker, President, in the chair, James C. Roach, Secretary. Mr. S. B. Wibirt, Treasurer, submitted his report for the past year. The directors declared a dividend of two per cent., payable August 1. The following officers were then balloted for and duly elected for the ensuing year: President, H. Dwight Smith; Secretary, James C. Roach; Directors, John R. Johnson, William A. Young, L. W. Crocker, S. B. Corbett, S. B. Wibirt, Harvey Bailey, and Miles C. Munson.

A motion was adopted that hereafter the work of the road be done by contract, and no officer of the company allowed to do the work unless he resigns such office. A motion was also adopted that hereafter all meetings of the company be held at the toll-gate.—Washington Chronicle.

AUCTION SALES.

SALE OF LOUDOUN LAND.

On SATURDAY, the 2d day of August, 1873, about the hour of eleven o'clock, we shall offer in the village of Bloomfield, before the store of W. H. Gill & Co., the LAND OF Mrs. NANCY ANDERSON, deceased, at public auction.

This tract contains 254 acres, and is situated on the waters of Goose creek, adjoining the Welborne Mills, owned by Mr. Richard H. Dulany, and has upon it a COMFORTABLE HOUSE, &c.

It is useless to give an extensive notice of this most valuable and productive farm. It is enough to say it is fully equal to any other in this portion of Loudoun county, so generally known for its production of grass and all the cereals. Mr. Barton, the tenant, will show it to any one disposed to examine it with a view to purchase.

Terms will be favorable, and made known on the day of sale. Address the undersigned, at Bloomfield, Loudoun county, Va.

COUNTRY RESIDENCE FOR SALE.

That very desirable property known as EXEDRA, in Loudoun county, Va., is offered for sale. It is situated on the Leesburg and Winchester turnpike road, at the crossing of the Berlin graded road, 8 miles from Leesburg, 2 miles from Hamilton, 1½ miles from Lincoln and half a mile from Purcellville depot, W. & O. R. R., and but a few hundred yards from the line of the railroad. The place contains about SIXTEEN ACRES OF LAND, on which there is a large roomy and comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, ice house, good barn and stabling for six horses; spring houses with a never-failing spring of delicious cold water, besides another fine spring near the barn. There is a good vegetable garden and fine apple and peach orchards of improved fruit and several cherry trees. There is a beautiful grove of trees around the dwelling, affording delightful shade. There is excellent pasture for horses and cows. It is in a good neighborhood, convenient to depot, postoffice, stores, churches, schools, &c., and in sight of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The pure bracing mountain air renders it unsurpassed in healthfulness by any place in the State of Virginia. There are good roads leading in every direction, affording fine drives. Taken altogether, the place constitutes one of the most desirable country retreats to be found anywhere, and is within two or three hours' ride by railroad of Washington city. Any one wishing to purchase this property can apply to the undersigned on the premises, or by letter, at Purcellville, Loudoun county, Virginia.
