HON. FRANK HUME.

There is no man in the State of Virginia more respected than Hon. Frank Hume. He is to-day the peoples' representative and no better man could be elected to Congress to succeed Lee. The question has been asked will he be elected? There is no reason why that he should not be and there are several reasons why that he should be.

1st. He is a good hearted man that alone entitles him to the suffrages of the 8th Virginia District voters.

2nd. He is a representative man, such a man the 8th Virginia voters have not in Congress at this time.

3rd. He is an honest man, such men are what we need in Congress. We need men who will look out for the interests of the people and that man is Mr. Hume.

4th. He should receive the unanimous vote of the Republican party, although, he is a democrat, he should receive the undivided colored vote because he is the colored man's friend. He knows no man by his color nor condition.

We have briefly stated some of the reasons why Mr. Hume should be elected to Congress from the 8th Cengressional district of Virginia It is left with the people whether they want such a man as we have above described. We are confident that Mr. Hume is the man and without him the people have no representative. We advise all loyal voters and citizens of the 8th District to give their support to a man who will honor the District and the State of Virginia.

)ODLERS.

tate more or less you lers. Bcodlers are a class of men who are continually looking for something to sell. They will either sell themselves or their party. The 8th Congressional District of Va., is full of just such men. The alleged boodle Republican League under the leadership of a few pusillanemous politicians have put one W. A. Carter in the field against Mr. Hume. Carter is well known in Alexandria city and county but, not so well known throughout the District. He is the candidate of Magnus L. Robinson and who is it that doesn't know Robinson? He is a political accrobat. He is first on one side and then on the other side. Carter was nominated by this boodle League; the League is a so-called Republican club that only exists in a man's mind. By the way Carter is a shoe maker by trade, but, he generally throws down his awle about the beginning of every campaign, and never takes it up until the canvass is ended. Carter is for sale, who wants him?

If the friends Mr. Hume will take our advice they will not bother one moment about Carter, Robinson or any of his gang.

REV. GRIMKIE'S MISTAKE.

The resignation Rev. Francis Grimkie as a member of the School Board for the District of Columbia was a surprise to many. Rev. Grimkie undoubtedly made a mistake in resigning; he ought to know that the people of George town are as much entitled to a school house as the people are in the northern section of the city. The school that the Commissioners decided upon is to take the place of the dilapidated Chamberlin building and if that is the case the Commissioners were right in reversing the action of the Board of School Trustees and Rev. Grimkie's mistake is, in resigning because the Commissioners decided against him. The people of West Washington have been discriminated against long enough and we congratulate Mr. Douglass for the timely revocation of the action of Trustee F. J. Grimkie and we sincerely hope that none of the old ring will be re-appointed again on the school board.

THE PURPUSE OF THE SOUTH.

The red shirt gentry who are running the constitutional convenvention in Mississippi with a single Negro member as a stool pigeon will find that after they have completed their nefarious work of disfranchising 123,000 colored voters that there is still "one more river to cross." The question will have to be settled whether Mississippi has a republican form of government; whether she has not violated the fundamental conditions upon which she was readmitted into the union. The people of this country are not prepared to see the franchise thus withdrawn from loyal citizens on the score of color. They know that if successful in Mississippi, the infamous schme will be resorted to in Louisiana, Tex., Alabama South Carolina, and probably in other slave states.

The condition of the colored people of the South is deplorable. By fraud, intimidation and murder they have for years been denied the exercise and enjoyment of both their civil and political rights. But men have been inclined to excuse these outrages upon the ground that the South was passing through a state of transition and that these irregularities, outrages and murders would soon be a thing of the past, and that then the South, realizing that it was grinding its own seed corn and consuming its own vitals, would call a halt. How sadly they have been mistaken in their estimate of Southern temper; let the work of the red-shirters of Mississippi answer. These conspirators against free government have thrown off their masks, and the country sees them just as they are.

THE BOGUS LEAGUE.

The alleged "Republican League" of Alexandria, Co., with Magnus L. Robinson at its head will have no weight with the Republican voters nor will Hon. Frank Hume be injured in the least by the candidacy Wm. Carter. The politicians understand this movement and if Magnus L. Robinson and his boodle followers think that they can draw any intelligent colored voter from Mr. Hume, they are mistaken. The most ignorant voter in the 8th Virginia District knows the political record of the Robinsons and their so-called league. Let every honest republican support Frank Hume.

GIVE IT TO SMITH.

Our esteemed contemporary the Detroit Plaindealer, with a grim humor that is "child-like and bland," suggests that Smith of the Gazette might be made chief of the Afro-American Department of the World's exposition. Smith's prospect for getting the place is evidently based upon the idea that nobody else will have it, for the Plaindealer and all the world beside know that if any one of else desired the place, Smith would have as much chance for it as he now has of going to heaven should he die in his present God hating—devil loving condition. Smith has been a candidate for everything that has turned up for the last ten years, from enrolling clerk of the Ohio Legislature to janitor of a public building, but he has always been defeated. The only office that he has ever been able to get is that of Deputy Coal Oil Inspector, from which, we are informed, he realizes the princely sum of one hundred dollars a year. What a lucrative position. While other men have achieved honorable success, Smith has spent his time in throwing mud at them; and this is the result.

We hope the management in view of Smith's misfortunes will make some provisions for him—it only that of floor sweeper. It would be a recognition of his services. But we fear that the Plaindealer and the BEE will be his only supporters.

DON'T WANT IT.

The Indinapolis Freeman in a recent issue suggested the name Hon. B. K. Bruce, as the most available man to be placed at the head of that portion of the Worlds Exposition to which the products of the colored people should be assigned, in the event that such separate exhibition should be deemed judicious. The BEE promptly seconded the motion. We now learn from Mr. Bruce himself that, while appreciating the compliment implied in the reference to him, he could not accept the position under any circumstances even should it be tendered to him. This declaration on his part settles the matter.

The address of Hon. Frederick Douglass before the Bethel Literary on last Tuesday evening was full of logic and eloquence. Mr. Douglass is an orator as well as a reasoner and what he says has weight,

WEST WASHINGTON NOTES.

A very large audience was in attendance at the musical and literary association on Thursday evening and the memorial exereises in honor of the late Rev. J. P. Cox, expastor of the Ebenezer A. M. Rev. J. W. Beckett, D. D., preached to a large audience on Sunday Eve., at Ebenezer church. Several associations connected with the church were in attendance in a body including the Metropolitan association composed of young men who donated a handsome sum to the church.

IN MEMORY OF THE LATE REV. J. P. COX.

W. Washington, Oct. 23, '60.

Whereas, In view of our receipt of the intelligence of the death of the founder ot the West Washington Literary association, Rev. John P. Cox,

Be it Resolved: That we have been deprived of a wise counsellor and adviser in the association, and while we humbly submit to God's divine will, namely, "Thy will be done," we deeply deplore the death of our venerable founder.

Be it further Resolved: That this association deeply spmpathize with the wife and family in their bereavements, in the loss of a good and affectionate husband, and a kind and loving father; and we would commend them to one who has promised to be a "Husband to the widow and a father to the orphan."

Be it further Resolved: That the church of which he was once connected, as pastor, has lost a devout Christian, and an ardent church worker.

Be it further Resolved: That the community has lost a good citizen, one who by his good, energetic work and example, greatly aided in the advancement of morality and christianity among the people.

Be it further Resolved: That on the part of the association, a copy of these resolutions, signed by the President and members be forwarded to the family.

Be it further Resolved: That a copy be sent to the clerk of the church of which he was last a pastor, and be requested to be publicly read.

CHARLES DICKENS.

No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,

Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.
