Acts and Joint Resolutions of the General Assembly of Virginia, 1952, ch. 443 (printed p. 732)

[seq 736, printed p. 732]

732 [VA., 1952 ACTS OF ASSEMBLY Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. § 1. That all elections heretofore held in any county of this State to provide for the issuance of bonds for the purpose of purchasing, erecting, building, rebuilding, adding to, equipping or otherwise improving any schools, sewerage or drainage systems, or parks and playground areas in any such county, be, and the same are hereby, validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any defect or irregularity in the calling or holding of such elections, or in the petitions or resolutions presented to the circuit court praying for the holding of such elections, or in the proceedings in the circuit court, or in the form of the ballots used at such elections, or in the circuit courts' orders ordering or confirming such elections and notwithstanding the failure to enter any of such orders of the circuit court, and any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued pursuant thereto, be, and the same are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of the county authorizing the issuance of such bonds. §2. The provisions of § 1 of this Act shall be applicable, notwithstanding the validity or invalidity of the qualifications of any member or members of the governing body participating in the bond issue. § 3. The provisions of §§ 1 and 2 of this act shall be construed to include every contract or security made or obtained in connection with such bond issue by any governing body through its members acting in their official capacity under color of office, notwithstanding the validity or invalidity of the qualifications of any member or members of the governing body. § 4. All judgments given and all acts executed or done by any person by authority or color of any office or post, or the deputation thereof, in connection with such bond issue before his removal from office, shall be as valid as they would be if such person had not been removed from office. 2. An emergency exists and this act is in force from its passage. CHAPTER 443 An Act to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered § 15-350.1, relating to interference by members of county boards in appointments and removals of certain personnel. 1. Approved April 1, 1952 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: [S 431] That the Code of Virginia be amended by adding a section numbered § 15-350.1, as follows: § 15-350.1. Except as to persons appointed by it, neither the county board nor any of its members shall direct or request the appointment of any person to or his removal from any office or employment by the county or in any way take part in the appointment of or removal of officers and employees of the county. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the board and its members shall deal with the administrative services solely through the county manager and the heads of departments whom it may be empowered to appoint and neither the board nor any member thereof shall give orders either publicly or privately to any other county employee. Any member violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall forfeit his office.
