Roye Llewellyn Lowry

OCTOBER 2, 1917 – DECEMBER 4, 2021

IN THE CARE OF Murphy Funeral Homes

Roye L. Lowry, a former Foreign Service officer and official at the Office of Management and Budget, died December 4, 2021. He was 104. Born October 2, 1917, in Cincinnati, Ohio, he grew up in Seattle, graduating from West Seattle High School in the class of 1934. During the mid-1930s, he worked at a stock farm in North Dakota. In 1937, he came to Washington as a freshman at George Washington University and graduated in the class of 1941. He began his federal career as a budget analyst at the Bureau of Budget in the fall of 1941. Inducted into the Army in 1943, he served with the 3rd US Infantry Division through the end of the war.

After the war, he received an appointment in the Foreign Service. He left the Foreign Service in 1957 and for several years served as a lobbyist for a small trade association, returning to government service at the Bureau of the Budget in 1966. Between 1961 and 1965 he served on the Arlington County Board. He retired from the Office of Management and Budget in 1979. Roye Lowry married Betty Lu Steere in 1946. They had two children both of whom are surviving. The marriage ended with her death in 1976. Mr. Lowry married Helen Muntrim in 1977 and their marriage lasted until her death in 2004. During retirement, he travelled widely and participated as a volunteer in numerous community organizations.
