Virdell Munsey Obituary

9/25/1933 - 4/19/2025

Virdell Everard "Ev" Munsey, Jr., passed peacefully on April 19, 2025 at the age of 91. Born and raised in Washington, DC, he graduated magna cum laude from Yale and earned his Master's degree from Harvard. He was a man of remarkable intelligence, humility, and public service. After serving in Army Intelligence stationed in Munich, Germany, during the Cold War, he settled in Arlington, Virginia, and became an award-winning reporter for the Washington Post. His reporting famously uncovered a slum housing scandal in Alexandria in which leading city officials were among major slum landlords. The upshot of which led to upheavals in Alexandria city politics.

Ev was elected a member and Chairman of the Arlington County Board in the 1970s, campaigning on a policy to establish the concentration of high-density zoning around the metro stops - one of the first in the U.S. - which was held up as the gold standard of transportation and land use planning. He also led the fight against Rt. 66 and I-266, successfully blocking the latter. Rt. 66 had been stopped when he left the board, but alternative proposals resulted in better versions with HOV requirements, creating a more reasonable way of transporting the city.

Beyond Ev's role as a local leader, he served in public affairs positions in the Hubert Humphrey campaign in 1968 and was Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Treasury under President Jimmy Carter. He concluded his long and distinguished career as Vice-President of Public Policy at Dominion Resources in Virginia, leading a group of utilities proposing legislative changes that would allow a competitive market in electricity. He was a beloved and devoted husband, father of four, grandfather of eight, and great-grandfather of 14. The world has lost a truly rare and immeasurable treasure.

Service pending.
