

Get Our App

The logo for ARLnow, with 'ARL' in a large, bold, white sans-serif font and 'now' in a smaller, italicized white sans-serif font.

Local is everything

News

Cristol, Dorsey Capture County Board Primary

By ARLnow.com

Published June 9, 2015 at 7:35PM | Updated June 9, 2015 at 11:21PM

Election officials say there were no problems at Arlington’s 52 polling stations during voting hours. Light turnout was reported — but the total turnout of 10,857 voters, or 7.9 percent of the registered voters, bested the 7.2 percent turnout of a similar County Board primary in 1995.

This was the first election in which Arlington utilized its new paper ballot and optical scanning system. Some delays in vote reporting occurred as election officials worked through new processes.

Cristol and Dorsey will face two independent candidates in the November general election, for the seats being vacated by the retiring Mary Hynes and Walter Tejada.

About the Author

ARLnow.com

Launched in January 2010, ARLnow.com is the place for the latest news, views and things to do around Arlington, Virginia. The ARLnow staff byline is used for the Morning Notes and reporting done by an editor or other member of our full-time staff.

#County Board

#election

#primary

Featured Event
