

LOCAL NEWS.

FUNERAL OF REV. PETER KROES.—A gentleman who was present at the funeral of the late venerable pastor of St. Mary's Church, at Georgetown College, on Saturday last, furnishes us with the following account of the manner in which the services were conducted. We publish it for the satisfaction of the many friends of Father Kroes, of all denominations, who would have been interested in the manner in which the body was laid to rest.

The body was laid in a plain, white coffin, the lid of which was left entirely open, and the dead pastor was lying upon it, and at his feet was a beautiful cross of white flowers, presented by a lady of this city. This was placed on the lid of the coffin. Six tall candles, standing on the floor, bearing lighted candles, stood around the coffin, which was placed in front of the altar. The funeral was held at the usual hour, and, though greatly enlivened, Father Kroes seemed as though he was but in a gentle slumber.

The congregations of St. Mary's Church, Alexandria, and of Trinity Church, Georgetown, who were present in large numbers, occupied the north side of the chapel, the students, who came in later, filling the center and south ranges. Rev. J. H. Healy conducted the services, assisted by other priests, among whom were Rev. Messrs. O'Kane and Ciccarelli, of Alexandria, Wight of Washington, Duddy, of Georgetown, and Sumner, Clapp, and Logue, of the College. These were divided into two choirs, by the Dean being seated. The former consisted of the 14th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 22d, 24th, 26th, 33d, 66th and 148th Psalms, with less than from the Book of Job, and the latter of the 50th, 64th, 66th, 148th, 149th and 150th Psalms, with the S. M. of Ecclesiastes and the 38th chapter of Isaiah, and the Canticle of Zachary, from St. Luke, chapter 1, followed by the 129th Psalm, (the 130th in the Protestant version, the numbering of the Psalms in the Catholic version differing by one, from the 10th to the 147th, in consequence of a different division of two Psalms.)

A Requiem Mass was then said by Father Healy, after which, the college students filed in and occupied the places assigned them, and the clergy, holding lighted tapers, ranged themselves round the coffin, while the usual funeral service was chanted. A procession was then formed, headed by the processional cross, borne by a sub-deacon in black tunic, supported by acolytes bearing wax-tapers. The students, two by two, formed the escort, and were followed by the clergy, to the number, perhaps, of twenty, after whom came the coffin, borne on a bier covered with a black velvet pall, by six brothers of the Society of Jesus. A choir followed, solemnly chanting the Canticle of Zachary, "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, because He hath visited and wrought the redemption of His people, &c." The voices of the chorists were exceedingly fine, and as the procession, which was closed by the personal friends and former parishioners of the deceased, moved slowly to the College Cemetery, to the ringing of the bell, the scene was a most impressive one.

The graves are in rows, each with a neat, marble head stone, of uniform size and shape, and surrounded by a little border of box, instead of being raised, as usual. The students were ranged around the grave, while the clergy and chorists surrounded the grave, and the rest of those present occupied the rear, descending to and overlooking the spot. Another short portion of the burial service was read by Father Healy, and, at the end, he cast the first earth upon the coffin, with the words of the ritual: "Remember, man, that thou art dust, and into dust thou shalt return."

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.—The weather yesterday was extremely inclement, snow falling nearly the entire day, and the congregations assembled were, in consequence, smaller than usual, though it was the first Sunday in the month, and Communion Sunday in nearly all the churches. The pulpits of all the churches were occupied by the resident clergy. In the M. E. Church at night, Rev. Mr. Hemenway, who has been transferred to the Vermont Conference, preached his farewell sermon from the 6th Chapter, 14th verse, Galatians, the same from which he preached his first sermon in this city. There were no services in the M. P. Church at night, the pastor and many of the members of that church being present at the M. E. Church. The following is a report of the work done during the day by the Young Men's Christian Association:

"The Mission Sabbath School, on the fish wharf, had its usual interesting session, and the death of one of the scholars attached to the school was made the occasion of pertinent addresses from Messrs. Hawkins and Sheekels to those present. The Alms House services were largely attended with a full committee on hand, and the exercises were of excellent interest. The work at the Jail was carried on with much interest by the small band of workers at that point, and they report that the inmates were more attentive than usual to the word spoken. The prayer meeting at the southeast corner of King and Payne streets was numerously attended; the committee were in full force, and they report the most successful meeting ever held at that section. The Sunday afternoon prayer meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church South was fully attended notwithstanding the aspect of the weather; the exercises were of the usual soul-stirring character; one of the speakers was unusually earnest in his appeal to the unconverted present; the other asked the closet prayers of the members of the churches during the week for God's blessing to descend upon this means of grace. Again the youth of both sexes were present in goodly numbers." This prayer meeting will be held next Sunday in the Methodist Protestant Church.

DEATH OF REV. JOHN L. PASCOE.—Many of our citizens will regret to learn of the death, at his residence in Amherst county, of Rev. John L. Pascoe, a local minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the 64th year of his age. He was a resident of this city for a number of years prior to the war, and was for some time chief book-keeper of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. At the breaking out of the war he removed to Lynchburg, where, after his dose, he became book-keeper for Mr. A. B. Rucker, in whose employ he remained for several years, after which he purchased a farm in Amherst county, where he died on Friday. About two years ago he received a stroke of paralysis, from which he seemed to recover. On Friday morning the deceased was in the orchard pruning fruit trees, at which occupation he was employed until noon, when he went into his house and partook of a lunch, seemingly well and conversing in a cheerful manner with his family. After lunch, he arose and started to leave the room; on reaching the door, he turned and remarked that he had a severe pain about the region of his left shoulder and heart, saying which he divested himself of his coat and laid down on the lounge. He never spoke afterward, and was a corpse in less than ten minutes.

CITY SCHOOL BOARD.—An adjourned meeting of this Board is to be held to-night at 7 1/2. In the report of its proceedings in our last issue, it was erroneously stated that the Board had adjourned until Wednesday night.

Every particle of poisonous matter is carried out of the system, the pale and sallow will become fresh and vigorous, by using Simmons' Liver Regulator.

TEACHERS MINUS THEIR PAY.—When the teachers and janitors of public schools went to the Treasurer's office on Saturday morning last to get their warrants cashed, they found but $277.64 in the treasury, while the aggregate of their warrants was $812.50. The few or six who came first were paid, but the reply "no funds" met the rest as they handed their warrants over the counter, and some were compelled to submit to a heavy discount to get their hard earned pittance. The Superintendent told us that he is informed from Richmond, that, in consequence of the slowness with which taxes come into the State treasury, no further appropriation of State funds can be expected for some time, and, as teachers can't live on air, any more than other people, it is obvious that unless the Aldermen take speedy action on the resolution from the Common Council, which they have laid on the table, some of the schools, at least, if not all of them, will be closed. The city is now in arrears to the School Board $1,500, and the latter has expended a reserve fund of nearly $1,500, intended for building purposes, in paying current expenses, and has not a cent more.

RIVER NEWS.—The steamer Columbia, after a thorough overhauling has recommenced her trips on the Baltimore line. She arrived yesterday evening with a large freight and many passengers.

All the other cases set for this term were continued and Court adjourned till Court in course.

RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF FATHER KROES.—A Mass of Requiem was sung at St. Mary's Church, this morning, for the repose of the soul of its late pastor, Rev. C. Ciccarelli officiating. Many persons received the Holy Communion. A meeting of the male members of the Catholic Church in Alexandria and its vicinity has been called for Wednesday night, at St. Mary's Hall, to testify their respect for the memory of the late Rev. Peter Kroes.

GLEE CLUB.—The Grant and Wilson Glee Club of Columbus, Ohio, who have come on to witness the Inauguration ceremonies, paid a visit to this city yesterday, and while waiting at the wharf for the boat on which to return, sang "Grant is our leader and 'Bingo was his name'" apparently to their entire satisfaction. They have, however, a poor opinion of the musical taste of the small crowd who witnessed their departure.

POLICE HEADQUARTERS.—The rumor that the Mayor has received official notification of the departure from the Northern cities of all the famous burglars for Washington, and that the banks and bankers must be put on their guard, is incorrect. Five cases of disorderly conduct have been disposed of since the last report.

Frauds on the Bank of England.

LONDON, March 3.—The discovery of immense frauds on the Bank of England causes the greatest excitement in financial circles. It is impossible to state the amount of the frauds, on the ramifications of operations of the Bank of England has issued a notice, cautioning the public against negotiating certain specified five-twenty and ten-fifty United States bonds aggregating in amount $220,000. It is thought that the forgeries were perpetrated by a ring of American swindlers and not by one person as at first supposed. A person arrested this morning on suspicion of being a party to the frauds proved to be an entirely innocent clerk. The discovery of the forgeries was altogether by accident and was brought about by Messrs. Rothschild noticing on income bills of exchange a difference in the color of the ink from that ordinarily used. The bills themselves were so neatly executed that they would have escaped detection. The reward for the arrest of the forgers has been increased to £2,500.

From Spain.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The following Madrid dispatch is published in the Associated Press papers this morning: "A majority of the Assembly are determined to carry through the bill for the abolition of slavery before prorogation.
