A COLORED DESPERADO.—A colored man named Fred. Butler, armed with the inevitable razor, made an assault upon a colored woman at Fishown last Saturday night, and cut her severely. Soon afterwards, on his way up into the city, he met another colored woman named Mollie Beale, near the Fairfax-street depot, and picking a quarrel with her, slashed her and John Bryant, also colored, who had come to her assistance. From thence he went to Marshall Hall, corner of King and Henry streets, where he broke open the door of the room of an old colored man named George Hall, beating the occupant, and driving out a colored woman named Julia Nichols, whom he afterwards caught and beat and cut on the corner of King and Patrick streets. Officers Watkins and Mullen got on his track soon after he had committed the last assault, and finding him in an alley connecting Henry and Patrick streets, the latter entered the alley from Patrick street and forced him into the arms of the former, who had stationed himself at the Henry street opening. He was as bold as a lion until he saw the uplifted billy of the policeman, when he dropped his razor and surrendered. He was taken to the station house, but was discharged to-day upon the payment of $18.40.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since Saturday afternoon:

Lizzie Ransom, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

Fred. Butler, colored, for assaults upon and cutting with a razor John Bryant, Martha Beale, George Hall and Julia Nichols, all colored, was fined $18.40 and discharged.

Rheinhardt Bodenstein, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

The above cases were before the Mayor.

Carlyle Girk, colored, committed to jail for obtaining goods under false pretences, was re-examined and dismissed by Justice Padgett, as the charge was not sustained.

Richard Hall, colored, committed to jail for stealing a carpet bag, was released, as he had served out his term of imprisonment.

John Harris, a colored boy, for robbing the till in the green grocers' store of Mr. James Cole, was locked up for examination.

Jim Welsh, a young colored member of the chain gang, who had been permitted frequently before to go into the jail cellar to split wood, ran away last Saturday afternoon, but was caught soon after in Devil's Row, Fishown, while putting juba for dancers.

Thirteen lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS—COUNTY SCHOOL LEVY.—The new Board of Supervisors, for Alexandria, met at the court house this morning; present, Messrs. F. C. Schutt, of Jefferson; Wm. A. Rowe, (colored), of Arlington; and G. C. Vaudeberg, of Washington District.

Mr. Rowe nominated Mr. Vaudeberg for chairman, but upon his declining, Mr. Schutt was unanimously re-elected.

The clerk laid before the Board a communication from Richard L. Carne, President of the County School Board, covering the estimates for the support of public schools for 1876-7, and Mr. C. being present, explained them, whereupon the county and district estimates as filed by the County Board were severally approved and levied for by a unanimous vote. The President, before retiring, took occasion to thank the Supervisors for their courtesy towards him and the School Board.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.—The weather, yesterday, was damp and disagreeable, and but few people attended the services that were held in the churches. Rev. Dr. McManney, of the Theological Seminary, preached at Christ Church in the morning. There was no service held there at night, nor was there any at the M. E. Church South. Being the first Sunday in the month it was Communion Sunday in most of the churches, and in all of them, except Christ Church, the M. E. Church, in which Rev. R. S. Dana preached at night, and St. Pauls, where Rev. Dr. Wheat preached in the morning, the pulpits were occupied by the resident clergy. Three persons were baptized in the Baptist Church at night. The regular Sunday activities of the Young Men's Christian Association were conducted as usual.

OFFICE HUNTING.—The like of office hunting was never before known, and the only benefit that accrues from it, that is apparent, is the increase in the receipts of the railroad and ferry boats; and yet the agents of those lines say that most of those who went to Washington this morning bought tickets for one way only, trusting to luck or shanks' mare to bring them back.

DEFECTIVE DRAINAGE.—Judging from the appearance of the large lake at the intersection of Queen and Patrick streets this morning, Mr. Michael Smith, who has already sued the Corporation for injury to his property, resulting from the defective drainage at that point, will have to lay his damages at a higher figure.

PROPERTY SALE.—F. A. Kerby, auctioneer, for John S. Fowler, assignee, sold to-day, in front of the custom house, the interest of W. S. Moore in three lots on the east side of Fairfax, between Wilkes and Gibson streets, to Mrs. Ann Moore, for $50, $35, and $20, respectively.

WILD TURKEYS.—Wild turkeys are said to be quite numerous in the pine forests of Fairfax county. One countryman had two that he had killed yesterday, on King street, this morning. They weighed twenty pounds apiece and he wanted to sell them both for $4.

BREAK IN A WATER MAIN.—A break occurred in the water main, near the intersection of Queen and Union streets, yesterday morning, and hands were employed to repairing it until two o'clock this morning.

THE WEATHER.—The weather yesterday and to-day has been rainy and disagreeable, and though not cold, yet exceedingly raw, the dampness penetrating to peoples' bones, and making rheumatic pains a frequent complaint.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Charles L. Pollock, of Warrenton, was admitted to the bar of the Court of the District of Columbia last Saturday, and in the same Court on the same day in the case of Mills vs. Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company, judgment was affirmed.

R. D. Ruffin, a famous colored man, once the Sheriff of this county, and now a member of the House of Delegates from Dinwiddie, was married in this city, last night, to the daughter of a respectable old colored man named Presley Diggs, and left this morning for Richmond, leaving his wife behind him.

Rev. Dr. Head, P. E., will preach at the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday, and Quarterly Meeting will be held there sometime next week.

PERSONAL.

In its description of the personnel of the new officers of the House of Representatives the Baltimore Sun says:

"Captain James M. Stuart, the postmaster elect of the House of Representatives, is a native of Alexandria, Va. He emigrated to St. Louis when quite a young man, and accompanied Gen. Price in the New Mexican expedition during the Mexican war. He afterwards located himself at Tuolumne county, Cal., and served as sheriff until the breaking out of the late war, when he left California, and rode on horseback through Mexico to the Rio Grande, and was, on his arrival at Richmond, chosen captain of one of the Alexandria companies in the Confederate service. At the close of the war he returned to Alexandria, and was soon elected city sergeant by a vote substantially unanimous. He resigned before the close of his term, and has since been engaged in settling up the business. No man has ever been so popular in his native town as he. He is over six feet in height and well built in proportion."

In its account of the late entertainment given by the X. Y. C. club, in Washington, the Card Basket, the new society paper in that city, says: "Miss Mollie Smoot, of Alexandria, Va., was dressed in Sicilienne gros grain, trimmed with folds of same and relieved at the throat, ornaments of truscan gold and coral."

The Norfolk Virginian says: "If Rev. Mr. Dame accepts the call lately extended him by Christ Church of Alexandria, Norfolk will lose the services of one who has engaged himself not only to the congregation of St. Luke's Church, but also to the city."

[He has accepted the call, and will take charge of the Church on the 21st inst.]

The Summer Tribune says:

"Among the most active Republicans of this district may be named Mr. R. T. Lucas, the present City Sergeant of the city of Alexandria. He is the most popular Republican of that city, and is the only man who could be elected (if any office for which the whole vote of the city was cast) to any position from the Republic ranks last spring. He is an energetic worker, and we hope that he may be re-elected next spring by a large majority."

Among the delegates appointed by Governor Kemper to attend the Cheap Transportation Convention, which meets at Chicago on the 15th of December are: Gen. M. D. Corse, Capt. P. B. Hooe and S. F. Beach, of this city, Colonel Edward Daniels, of Fairfax, and Colonel H. E. Peyton, of Loudoun.

Messrs. H. O. Claughton and G. L. Simpson, Senator and Delegate to the Legislature from this city, are at home on a short visit.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

THE FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

[Special dispatches to the Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, December 6, 1875.

The opening of the Congress was like that of all the recent Congresses, a time of crowding in the galleries and of excitement on the floor.

There were a very large number of Alexandrians in the galleries, and on the floor of the Senate Senator Withers became matter of local interest because he is to reside among you, while in the other House Mr. Canfield, of Ill., is a native Alexandrian, and Mr. Herford, of West Virginia, the son of an old Alexandrian.

Senate.

The Senate was called to order by Hon. T. W. Ferry, of Michigan, the President pro tem, elected at the extra session of the Senate, held last Spring.

As the Senate was organized at that session there was no obstacle to proceeding to business immediately.

Mr. Key, successor to ex-President Johnson, was sworn in.

A committee was appointed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate was ready to proceed to business; and Messrs. Anthony and Thurman, to unite with a like committee to be appointed by the House, to wait upon the President and inform him that the Senate was ready to receive any communication he desired to make to them.

The Senate then took a recess to await the organization of the House of Representatives, and shortly afterwards adjourned until to-morrow.

House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives met at noon, and was called to order by the Clerk, Mr. M. P. Person, who called the roll.

The balloting for Speaker was then proceeded with, resulting as follows: Michael C. Kerr, of Indiana, 173; James G. Blaine, of Maine, 160; scattering 4.

The Clerk announced that Mr. Kerr having received a majority of the votes was chosen Speaker of the House, and requested Mr. Blaine, the opposing candidate in the House, and Mr. Randall, the opposing candidate in the caucus, to conduct Mr. Kerr to the chair.

Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, the senior member of the House by successive service, was requested to administer the oath of office to Mr. Kerr.

Mr. Kerr, on taking the chair, thanked the House for its confidence in bestowing upon him the lofty honor of being called to preside over its deliberations, and assured the members of his absolute impartiality while occupying the chair.

The "iron-clad" oath was then administered to the Speaker, and then the members of the House took the oath of office at the hands of the Speaker.

The Spencer-Morey contested election case coming up, was debated by Messrs. Wood, Blaine, Lamar and others.

In the contested election case of Patte vs. Goode, from the Norfolk district, in Virginia, Goode was admitted and sworn in.

Foreign News.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The failure is announced of William Spotton & Co., linen manufacturers and bleachers of Belfast, Ireland, and this city. Their liabilities are estimated at a million and a half dollars.

The Times' telegram from Alexandria says Egypt does not wish to annex Abyssinia. She merely wants security against the violation of her frontier by Abyssinia.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Pall Mall Gazette of this afternoon contains the following brief but startling news item: An awful explosion occurred to-day at the Swaithe Main Colliery, near Barnsley, in the west riding of Yorkshire. It is feared that more than two hundred lives are lost.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The explosion in the Swaithe Main Colliery occurred at half-past 9 this forenoon. There is nothing new to report except that there are hopes that the loss of life will not be so heavy as at first given. At the time of the explosion those who were able rushed to the pit bottom, but the drawing cage had been displaced. The bodies of the dead and injured are now being brought to the surface.

The Uruguay.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Col. Rosada, who was in command of the last expedition to Cuba in the Uruguay, last night made a report to the Cuban Association. He stated that the vessel was wholly unfit for the service. Her machinery was old and in poor condition, and the propeller worked so badly that the utmost speed the steamer could attain was a little over five miles an hour. When the vessel had set out on the voyage it was discovered that the supply of coal was insufficient, and later the provisions began to fall short. The people on board suffered greatly from these causes, and also from the excessive heat. When they reached Cuba nine men were landed in a boat to reconnoitre, but the place was so dangerous to vessels that it was impossible to land any part of the cargo or any soldiers. Meanwhile the Spanish authorities had been informed of their presence, and they had to make the utmost speed to Jamaica. The arms furnished were of an inferior quality. He blamed the agents in this city for their negligence in fitting out the vessel.

Tweed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—It has been ascertained that Tweed's private secretary was last seen at his stopping place a few minutes before the departure of the 10 o'clock train for Boston Saturday morning. He took that train, saying he was going to Boston and would return Tuesday. He, however, carried a large trunk. It was rumored at the 59th street police station last evening that on Saturday, from 4 to 5:12 p. m., a tug was noticed cruising in a mysterious manner in the East river, off 59th street. No notice was noticed by which the tug could be identified.

Babecock.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Tribune has the following dispatch:

St. Louis, Dec. 5.—The grand jury, in this city, found an indictment against Gen. Babecock, on Friday last, for his connection with the whiskey ring. Owing to the absence of the district attorney it was not announced in court yesterday, but will be without doubt to-morrow.

Naval.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Dec. 6.—Orders have been received at the navy yard here to immediately fit for sea the Ticonderoga, which vessel is now laid up here. The Marion has not, as was reported, been ordered to Liberia, but still awaits orders. A draft for fifty seamen from the Charleston navy yard arrived here yesterday for this vessel.

Grain Freights.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6.—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company announce to-day that they will allow a drawback of three cents per 100 pounds on all grain brought to this city from western points which passes through their hands.

Fire.

NICHOLASVILLE, KY., Dec. 6.—J. L. Alvinston's furniture store and the dry goods stores of J. S. Masters, Newton Deekson, J. B. Critcher, Nolar & Bro., Hamilton & Dean, and J. B. Sparks, were burned Saturday. Loss $30,000.

Escape.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A number of prisoners escaped from the Raymond street, Brooklyn jail, last night, including John and Thomas Laughery, counterfeiters of five cent nickels.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6, 11 a. m.

For the Middle States, northeast winds, backing to northwest, lower temperature, stationary or rising barometer, and cloudy weather, with occasional light rain and snow.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Stocks dull and steady. Money 4. Gold 142. Flour dull and unchanged. Wheat quiet and steady. Corn quiet and unchanged.
