

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 1.

LOCAL NEWS.

For this section local rains, warmer, southerly winds.

SUCCEEDED AT LAST.—James W. Baker, who has been confined in the jail here charged with stealing a horse from Chatham's stables last fall, and who had made two ineffectual attempts to escape, succeeded last night. On the two previous occasions, it will be remembered, Baker, by the manufacture from pieces of wood and nails of several contrivances in the shape of keys, succeeded in opening the prison doors and gaining the yard, where, by the aid of a ladder made from strips of his bed clothing and pieces of wood from an outhouse, he proceeded to scale the wall, but on both occasions was taken with vertigo and fell back into the inclosure. Last night, however, it seems that the vertigo failed to play its part, and Baker, by the use of the same means employed in his two attempted escapes, succeeded, and is now at liberty. Since the last endeavor on his part to gain the outer world he had been kept in one of the down-stairs iron cells which is locked from the outside. There is a small aperture or wicket in the door of the cell through which food and water are passed. This opening, however, was some distance above the lock, which was too far off to be reached by any human arm. The thief, though, nothing daunted, by attaching a piece of a lath to one of his three "keys" succeeded in inserting the same into the lock and opened the cell door. He then walked into the corridor, the door of which he soon opened with another of his keys, and upon reaching the door letting into the yard opened that as he had the others. Upon gaining the yard by the aid of the "ladder," made from strips of bed clothing and pieces of wood from an outhouse, he reached the wall, from which he descended to the ground and made his escape. The manner in which Baker worked himself out of his cell and over the wall was wonderful. The keys, as well as those used on the two former occasions, show ingenuity in the manufacture. He left a note thanking the jail authorities for kindness extended him while in their charge, and exculpating them and any of his fellow prisoners from complicity with him. A reward of fifty dollars has been offered for his recapture. Baker is about 65 years old, and it is supposed by some that the man (pretending to be a detective) who brought Mr. Potter's stolen horse back some days ago, and who visited Baker in his cell, in some manner aided in his escape. Had Baker escaped the penalty of his misdemeanor here, a requisition was awaiting him from Delaware, where he is also wanted for horse stealing.

He was to have been tried here at the February term of the Corporation Court, but when placed in the prisoner's box swallowed a piece of tobacco, which acting as a powerful emetic, as he intended it should, the odor emanating from the room was soon rendered as foul as the "steerage" of an Atlantic steamer during a storm; hence his trial had to be postponed until the April term.

ANOTHER ENTERPRISE.—The following is the article published in the New York Marine Journal of Saturday last, mention of which was made in yesterday's GAZETTE: "The Norton Naval Construction and Ship Building Company, of New York and New Jersey, was incorporated last summer to acquire the sole right and license to use and operate within the limits of the States of New York and New Jersey the invention known as the Norton system of naval construction, protected by letters patent of the United States. The capital stock of the company is $250,000 in shares of $20 each. The trustees of the company recently executed an agreement with Captain Norton which gives to the company in addition to their rights in the two above mentioned States one-half interest in all profits that may be realized from the working of the patent within the entire limits of the United States. The valuable grant has been secured without increasing the capital stock or sacrificing any of its present working capital. Captain Norton proposes to open boat and yacht building works at Alexandria early in the spring, when the construction branch of the business will be rapidly developed."

It is understood that if this enterprise is started here the property, or a part at least, of the Virginia Iron Shipbuilding Company will be secured by the Norton company, on which to commence operations, and a better locality could not have been secured, for the ground is well situated for such purposes and the water front is all that could be desired, extending as it does from Wilkes to Duke streets (two full squares) with a depth of water ranging from 10 to 30 feet. Representatives of the Norton company recently visited the premises and were much pleased with the advantages they possessed. The Norton system of construction it is said will be found invaluable in its application to life and ships' boats, as it makes them perfectly safe and reliable in use and affords a degree of safety that cannot be secured by any other form of construction. It is claimed that boats so constructed cannot be capsized by the sea, no matter how rough the weather; they cannot be swamped by overloading or by the carelessness of their occupants, nor by the breaking of, or damage to their frames. All boats so constructed ballast themselves automatically immediately upon being lowered or launched into the water, with a weight of water ballast proportionate to their displacement.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chichester presiding. On motion of Attorney J. E. Clements letters of administration were granted to Alonzo G. Hayes upon the estate of John E. Chase, deceased, late of Alexandria county. He qualified by giving bond in the sum of $500.

Com. vs. Dr. James Mackall; two cases—one for assault and the other for carrying concealed weapons; continued for defendant until second day of next term of court.

Com. vs. Richard Simmons and Joseph Lipscomb; continued for defendants until first day of next term.

The last will and testament of Charles W. Taylor, deceased, was received and probated; order appointing his widow, Cora Taylor, guardian of his children, and giving her full control of his property, to be used for their benefit.

A motion to discharge Henry Drummond, sentenced to four months in jail, was argued Court adjourned till court in course and overruled; thereupon he applied to Court for a writ of habeas corpus which was awarded and the prisoner discharged on the ground that the judgment was a nullity because four terms had elapsed without his having had a trial. Mr. Edmund Burke, as special attorney, represented the Commonwealth, and C. E. Stuart and S. G. Brent the prisoner in the case.

PERSONAL.—Mr. W. C. Yeaton, jr., and bride were in the city to-day, the guests of Judge C. E. Stuart.

Mrs. C. A. Baldwin, of Richmond, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McVeigh.

THE STEAMER SUE.—The steamer Sue, of the Potomac Transportation line, commences running this week. Her route is from Baltimore to this city and Washington, making landings on both sides of the Potomac river and its tributaries. The steamer stopped running about Christmas. Since that time she has been generally overhauled and fitted up. She is now in fine condition. Capt. W. C. Geoghegan is her master.

SARAH BERNHARDT. The French actress, with her troupe of thirty-five members, passed through this city last night, on the Virginia Midland road from New Orleans, en route to Washington in a special train of six cars, including three sleepers. She has just returned from Mexico and took the Virginia Midland road at Danville.

NEW ORGAN.—In a few days work will be commenced preparing the M. E. Church South for the reception of the new organ recently purchased by the congregation. The organ, which is a large and handsome instrument, will be situated in the western end of the church, over the pulpit.

For weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, consumption, night sweats and all lingering coughs, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Superior to cod liver oil. By druggists.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, March 1—11 a. m.—The opening of the stock market this morning was rather heavy, first prices being in a majority of cases slightly under last evening's final quotations. There was a very uneven distribution of the business done, the majority being fairly active, while others of the list were positively dull. Most of the list was generally steady to firm, with very little movement in prices. In the latter part of the hour there was a marked decrease in the amount of business done, and at 11 o'clock the market was dull and steady. Money easy at 4 1/2.

BALTIMORE, Mar. 1.—Virginia 6s consolidated 48; 10-40s 38; past-due coupons —; new 3s 65 1/2 bid to-day.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, March 1, 1887.—There is a moderate demand for Flour, and the markets are quiet but steady. Wheat is without material change; a firmer feeling may be noted on account of a small decrease in the visible supply, but there is nothing to encourage a speculative movement, and only choice grades are readily sold. Corn is strong and active. Rye and Oats are firm. Eggs are scarce and wanted. Other produce is in demand, but without quotable change.

BALTIMORE, March 1.—Cotton firm; middling 9 1/2 @ 9 3/4. Flour nominally steady and quiet. Wheat—Southern nominal; red 90 @ 92; amber 91 @ 93; Western lower and dull; No 2 winter spot and March 88 @ 89 1/2; May 87 1/2 @ 89 1/2. Corn—Southern steady; white 47 @ 48; yellow 46 @ 47. Western easier, closing firm; mixed spot 45 1/2 @ 47 1/2; March 45 1/2 @ 47 1/2; April 45 1/2 @ 47 1/2; May 46 1/2 @ 47 1/2; steamer 45 bid. Oats steady and dull; Southern and Pennsylvania 34 @ 35; Western white 37 @ 38; do mixed 34 @ 35. Rye steady at 56 @ 58. Provisions firm and quiet. Whiskey steady at $1 23 @ 24. Other articles unchanged.

CHICAGO, March 1—11:00 a. m.—The opening quotation for Mess Pork was 50c a barrel under the closing last night, or $17 50; the price advanced to $18 70, going up 10c with each bid and is now quoted at the outside figures. May Wheat opened at 75 1/2c, and is now quiet at 75 1/2-76. May Corn 39 3/4-40. May Oats 25 1/2. May Lard 22 1/2.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Cotton dull; uplands 9 9-16; Orleans 9 1/4; futures quiet and steady. Flour dull and heavy. Wheat lower. Corn lower. Pork firm at $15. Lard steady at $7 27 1/2.

BALTIMORE HOE MARKET, February 28.—There was a slight increase in the receipts over the fair run of last week. The quality of the offerings was of a rather mixed order. Trade is fairly active in the yards generally. We quote at 7 1/2-7 3/4 per lb net, with most sales from 7 1/2 @ 7 3/4. Receipts this week 7905 head.

GEORGETOWN CATTLE MARKET, February 28. 35 Cattle were offered, which sold as follows: best 5c; good 4 1/4; medium —; common 3 3/4. Sheep sold at 40c; Lambs 45c; Calves 6 1/2. 5 Cows and Calves sold at $20 @ 45.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Hail, gentle Spring.

Agnes, the infant daughter of the late Peter Fegan, died in Washington yesterday evening.

During the month of February forty one deeds were recorded and five marriage licenses issued by the Clerk of the Corporation Court.

The funeral of the late Stephen Todd, whose death was mentioned yesterday, took place from the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Henry Hantzmon, this morning.

Lieut. Col. Hains has informed the Commissioners that the construction of the outlet of the tidal reservoir just above Long bridge, at the head of the Washington channel, has been commenced.

As the Legislature will meet on the 16th inst., it is suggested that those in this city having matters to be presented to that body for consideration should prepare their papers at once and submit them to their representatives.

The police report last night as being clear and cold, until about 12 o'clock, when it became cloudy. There were six lodgers but no prisoners at the station house, so the Mayor this morning had no cases before him for trial.

The New York Marine Journal says it is reported that Austin Corbin, of the Long Island Railroad, is interested in the new Arrow Steamship Company, of New York, which proposes the construction of iron steamers in this city.

President Baughman, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, has issued a call for a meeting of the directors of the company in Washington, on Friday next. The business to be transacted at this meeting will include the fixing of freight rates on the canal for the ensuing year, in which subject much interest is felt.

Henry Schofield, a clerk of the adjutant-general's office, fifty-two years of age, came to this city from Washington on the 22d of February, returned to that city next day, drew $1,000 from the Fifteenth Street Savings Bank, and has not been heard of by his friends since that time. It is feared that he has wandered away insane.

It is said that at the old court house yesterday, when the announcement was made that Judge Chichester would not hold court that day, almost every one of the large crowd present at once resolved himself into a candidate or an elector for a friend for the various county offices to be filled at the May election. The scenes are described as being ridiculous.

The officers of the Arrow Steamship company who were expected here from New York to-day telegraphed that they could not come till Friday, but ordered that the work of clearing the ship yard be pushed as rapidly as possible.
