MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 3.

Persons leaving the city can have their GAZETTE mailed to any address, postage prepaid, at the rate of fifty cents per month. Subscribers ordering the GAZETTE from one postoffice to another should give change as well as new address.

LOCAL MATTERS.

For this section in fair weather, followed by light showers, slight changes in temperature, mostly winds.

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR.—With the sun on Wednesday, the fifth of September, the Jews all over the world will celebrate the eve of their New Year's Day of the year 5649. All Hebrews keep holy that day, which is called Rosh Hashanah. While the advanced synagogues keep holy that one day, the orthodox synagogues observe two days—Thursday and Friday.

This is one of the most sacred days among the Israelites, and is generally observed among them. The places of business of the Hebrew merchants will be closed, as no business will be transacted by them on that holiday.

Saturday, the 8th inst., will be an important Sabbath, and is called the "Sabbath of Repentance." On the following day, Sunday, the strictest Israelites keep the fast of Gedaliah from sunrise to sunset.

On Wednesday, the 10th inst., will be the eve of the great Day of Atonement, called Yom Kippurim. The day is strictly observed with fasting from sunset until Saturday's sunset.

On Wednesday, the 10th inst., the festival of Booths, or Succoth, commences, lasting seven days, but the advanced synagogues observe only the 20th and the closing festival, on September 27th. The orthodox synagogues observe September 20, 21, 27 and 28.

The 26th day of September is called Hoshanah Rabbah, the feast of the Willow. On the Sabbath of the 29th commences the new cycle of the reading of the Pentateuch, and the difference between the orthodox and the advanced Israelites is also shown in the fact that, while the free books of Moses are read by orthodox congregations during the period of one year, the advanced congregations read only one-third a year, or the entire Pentateuch in a cycle of three years.

The year 5649 will be a leap year, the synagogues will observe thirteen months instead of twelve, and the New Year of 5650 will commence on Monday, September 26, 1889.

PERSONAL.—Mr. H. Strauss will be unable to attend the Congressional convention which meets at the Warrenton Springs on Wednesday, and his alternate, Dr. A. F. Cox, will take his place at that convention. Mr. Samuel T. Beach, of Richmond, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. J. C. Maxwell, who has been spending the summer in Cecil county, Md., has returned to this city.

Mrs. Theodore Ketchum has returned from Massachussetts, where she has been spending the summer.

The Front Royal Messenger says: "On Friday evening last the proprietor of the Exchange Hotel gave a 'hoop' in honor of his guests who have been spending the summer there, viz: Miss Edith Quisenberry, of Washington, D. C., Mr. Thos. Flemming and family, of Alexandria, Mrs. Tommy and her daughters, Florence, Marion and Agnes, of Washington, D. C. The ladies who participated in the dance were, besides the guests, Misses Girardeau, Macatee, Lott, Lott, Turner, of Rappahannock county, Miss Corde, of Alexandria, Miss Richardson, Miss Adie Buck, Miss Ham and Miss Kirby. After a pleasant time of dancing, the company were invited out to a handsome lunch, where youth and beauty and a flow of soul."

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with ten prisoners at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

A young man, arrested by officer Brenner for disorderly conduct, and another, arrested by the same officer for being drunk on the street, forfeited $5 collateral each.

Chas. Robinson, colored, arrested by special officer Crump for removing brakes on the cars; Chas. Cooper, colored, arrested by Lt. Smith for disorderly conduct and Jas. Cliff, arrested by officer Price for being drunk and disorderly, were fined $150 each.

Wm. Bent, Bud Warner and Wm. Rucker, all colored, arrested by Lt. Smith and officers Price and Davis for disorderly conduct and L. W. Skelton, also colored, arrested by officer Price as a suspicious character, were all dismissed.

A young white man, arrested by Lt. Smith for indecent conduct, and A. B. Rowe, colored, arrested by officers Taylor and Young for disorderly conduct and for carrying concealed weapons, had their case continued.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chichester presiding.—On the application of G. W. Seigmiller and L. Bingham for new roads, rates against land owners were issued returnable at the October term.

All special policemen heretofore appointed were removed except Robert Walker.

A rule was issued against Tibbett Allen to show cause why he should not be removed as supervisor of Roads of Jefferson District on account of non-residence.

The grand jury returned true bills to the following indictments: Wm. Bidgway, attempt to murder, same, carrying concealed weapons; Robert White, house breaking; Fred Walker and David Williams, violating the Sunday law; Chas. Butler, malicious cutting; John Jackson, James Mitzan and David A. Irwin, selling liquor without license, and not true bills against Chas. Butler charged for carrying concealed weapons and Jas. Pearson for selling liquor without a license.

Court then adjourned till Court in course.

BASE BALL.—The Alexandria Base Ball Club who went to Roanoke last week returned last night. They were defeated in three of the games which were played. In Saturday's game the score was Alexandria 5, Roanoke 5, the latter making all five runs in the first inning. The Roanoke Times says: "After the first inning the game was a good one, the visitors playing a plucky uphill game. At the conclusion of the game a riot of forty yards dash was run by Beck, of the Roanoke, and Abro, of the Alexandria, in which Roanoke's fleet runner was easily victor, his opponent throwing up the sponge before completing two-thirds of the course."

FIRE ALARM.—The alarm of fire shortly after 11 o'clock on Saturday night last was caused by the upsetting of a lamp and the burning of some bedding in the house occupied by Mrs. Powell on Prince street, between Fairfax and Lee. A young man living in the house went to bed leaving the lamp burning near him, and it is supposed upset it while asleep. The fire department promptly responded to the alarm, but their services were not needed. The loss was slight.

NEW REGISTRATION.—At a meeting of the Electoral Board of the county, held to-day, the following order was issued: Ordered, That a new registration of the qualified voters of Alexandria county, Virginia, be held in said county in accordance with chapter 183 of the acts of the legislature of Virginia, for the year 1887-8, said registration to commence on the 24th day of September, 1888, and be completed within six days from the time of the commencement thereof.

SCHOOL PERMITS.—The Clerk of the School Board this morning commenced issuing permits to white children to attend the public schools, and during the day issued 481—251 to white boys and 230 to white girls—115 more than were issued the present day last year. During the day much confusion prevailed which the Superintendent, Clerk, janitor and policemen were unable to quiet, and at one time the hall had to be cleared.

YESTERDAY.—Several of the ministers of the city who have been spending their vacation in the country have returned and yesterday occupied their respective pulpits. All of the churches had fair congregations and many persons were on the streets enjoying the delightful weather. The day was a quiet one, but few breaches of the peace being reported by the police.

SUIT FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT.—Mr. John T. Vincent has entered suit in Washington against Maurice Riddies for $10,000 damages, besides costs. He charges that on August 25, the defendant wrongfully and maliciously appeared before Judge Mills in the Police Court in that city and charged him with having stolen $500 from a trunk in a room which he had occupied.

NOISY PARTY.—The residents of West End were awakened on Friday night last by the noisy behavior of three men and a woman, all under the influence of liquor, who drove through the village in a dayton. They went as far as the toll gate, but could not get through, and then the men put the woman out of the vehicle and left her screaming.

PAYMENT MADE.—Mrs. Christiana Bohrus to-day received a check for $3,000, being the amount of the policy held by her husband, the late Jacob Bohrus, in the Royal Arcanum Council, of this city.

[COMMUNICATED.]

They stood not upon the order of their going, but went at once, can be said of our police, who answered with promptness the mysterious whistle supposed to command their aid which sounded about three o'clock Sunday morning.
