

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 3.

LOCAL MATTERS

For this section fair, cooler weather, followed Thursday by warmer, northwesterly winds, becoming variable, light frosts in exposed places.

THE COUNTY'S FINANCIAL CONDITION.—Prior to the appointment of the Hon. D. M. Chichester as Judge of the County Court of Alexandria county, the annual levy for county expenses was in excess of $2, and now the annual levy for county expenses is reduced to 60 cents. Prior to Judge Chichester's reinstatement, the annual expenditure varied from $8,000 to $10,000. This contrasted with the fact that last year's entire expenditures amounted to but $5,635.77 shows conclusively how economically the present county government is managed and it is mainly owing to the present financial condition of Alexandria county that real estate to-day is on a solid basis there, and the tax thereon brought to its minimum, causing the lands to be eagerly sought for at vastly advanced rates, all of which statements are substantiated by the records in the county clerk's office of Alexandria county.

PERSONAL.—The family of ex Mayor J. T. Beckham have returned from Culpeper county and are temporarily staying at the Alexandria House.

A party, consisting of Mrs. Kate Chase, Miss Ethel Chase Sprague, Miss French, Mrs. Gayn Tomkins, Messrs. J. D. Brown, Graham, Hosmer, Tomkins and Dr. M. Manchester, came to this city on Monday, and went to Mount Vernon on horseback, excepting Mrs. Chase, who drove. An elegant lunch was sent down on the Corcoran. The day was beautiful, the roads excellent and the trip was a glittering success. They returned in the evening and went to Washington on one of the ferry steamers.

The marriage of Mr. B. B. Smith and Miss Lillie Goodrich is announced to take place on the 10th inst.

THE VISITING FIREMEN.—The delegation of the Potomac (Pa.) Hose Company, under command of Chief Schafer, now on a visit to this city, the guests of the Columbia Company, were given a grand ball at McBurney's hall last night. Prof. Cardwell's band of Washington, furnished the music, and the affair was a decided success. Mr. S. T. Jenkins acted as master of ceremonies, and Messrs. J. H. Strider, J. Brill, B. Atwell and J. Griffin as floor managers. The attendance was good and every one enjoyed the dance, which was kept up till a late hour. To-day the visitors were taken to Mount Vernon in vehicles and to-morrow they will be escorted to Washington to see the places of interest there. On Friday they will leave for home.

ACQUITTED.—In the County Court of Spotsylvania on Monday the case of the Commonwealth against George Allan and Fanny Powell, charged with larceny, came up for trial. This was the case in which the parties were accused of stealing money from the satchel of a young lady friend. Much interest was manifested in these cases, and the court room was crowded during the entire day. The grand jury refused to indict Miss Powell, but found a true bill against Allan. A venire was empanelled that tried the case. A number of witnesses were examined on both sides, and the case given to the jury about night. After a short retirement, they returned with a verdict of not guilty.

THE HYDRAULIC FIRE CO.—At the regular meeting of the Hydraulic S. F. E. Co. last night the invitation of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., to attend its fair was accepted and Thursday, the 4th, selected as the night.

President Carne offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the thanks of this company are due, and are hereby tendered to the President of the Board of Fire Wardens for the great interest he has taken in having the engine and hose carriage placed in our charge by the city, put in complete repair.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cool and clear with one prisoner at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Frank Travers, arrested by officer McCuen on suspicion of having robbed the schooner Jennie A. Cheney and stolen a watch and coat, was dismissed for want of evidence.

Chas. Jackson, a colored tramp, who had been held on the charge of stealing clothing, was dismissed.

JANUSCHKEK appeared in this city last night for the first time, and an appreciative audience greeted her at the Opera House, but in size the crowd was not what was expected. She appeared in her great role of "Maggie Merril" and her impersonation of that character was truly fine. She was well supported, and rarely has a better entertainment been given in this city. Those present enjoyed a real treat.

POLITICAL MEETING.—As will be seen by a notice published elsewhere, the democratic organization of the city will have a mass meeting at the Opera House on Friday night next, when Senators Vance and George and other distinguished speakers will address the citizens of Alexandria. These speeches will be worth hearing.

MR. BARBOUR REGISTERS.—At about 10 o'clock this morning Hon. John S. Barbour went to the place of registration in the Fourth ward, like any other citizen, and registered as a voter without challenge or protest. The charge made in a Washington paper that he was disqualified and that his right to register would be contested was simply foolish, as all right-minded people knew.

REGISTRATION.—The registration books will close to-morrow evening, and every democrat in the city should see that his name is properly registered to-morrow. The republicans have made an active canvass of the city and as all of their voters have been registered, the democrats should do the same thing.

I. O. O. F. FAIR.—The fair for the benefit of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., opens at Armory Hall to-night. All the arrangements have been perfected and all who attend are assured a good time.

THE ST. CLAIR HOTEL at Richmond, fronting upon Capitol Square—the most elevated, central and desirable portion of the city—is unexcelled in its appointments by any establishment of the kind in Richmond. By an advertisement in another column the proprietor of this favorite hotel announces that rates will not be advanced during the continuance of the Exposition to be held in that city.

The Only Perfect Remedy for habitual constipation, dyspepsia, and indigestion is the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It strengthens as well as cleanses the system, it is easily taken, and perfectly harmless. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Bro.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

It is probable that the plant of the Philadelphia Bridge Company will be removed to Roanoke.

The third annual fair of the Shenandoah Agricultural Society began at Woodstock yesterday.

The cornerstone of the new Lutheran church at Staunton was laid yesterday with imposing ceremonies.

It is now believed that Alonzo Lewis, the New York drummer, whose remains were recently found at Virginia Beach was murdered.

Mr. Jacob D. Gregory, an old citizen of Amherst, died suddenly at his home, near New Hope Church, in that county, Sunday morning.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., rector of St. Mark's Church, returned to Richmond Monday afternoon after a trip to Europe for the benefit of his health.

The contract for the construction of the extension of the Cumberland Valley Railroad from Martinsburg, W. Va., to Winchester, has been awarded to a Philadelphia firm.

The sixty-fifth session of the University of Virginia opened on Monday with flattering prospects. The number of matriculates up to 6 p. m. yesterday was 280, with about 100 matriculated now on the grounds.

Rev. Alexander Galt, rector of the Episcopal church in Prince George county, and Miss Emily Virginia Cooke, of City Point, were married recently by the Rev. Arthur Lloyd, of St. Luke's Church, Norfolk.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Board of Supervisors of King George county have recently reduced the taxes from 50 cents to 40 cents on the $100 on real and personal property, the county is out of debt for the first time in some years, with a small surplus in hand.

Hon. B. F. Bland, a lawyer and politician, well known throughout Virginia, died at his home in King and Queen county yesterday after a protracted illness. He was a member of the Senate of Virginia for three terms, and was several times a prominent candidate for Congress.

It is again said that Chicago is to have Libby Prison after all. A new company has been organized and has applied for letters of incorporation. The building, it is said, will be moved from Richmond in the spring and will be fitted up as a permanent military museum.

Mr. W. L. Royall has called the attention of Judge Atkins, of the Hustings Court of Richmond, to the ejectment of Deputy City Sergeant Macon from the Capitol on Monday while attempting to seize property to satisfy costs ordered by the Supreme Court of the United States. Judge Atkins will confer with Judge Holladay, of the Chancery Court, before taking action. Judge Holladay acted in the case out of which the proceedings grew.
