

LOCAL NEWS.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 10.

For this section showers, stationary temperature, easterly winds.

IDLE NEGROES.—The number of negroes of all ages and conditions who apparently remain idle and yet manage to eke out an existence in this city has more than once been commented on. How some of them subsist is an enigma understood only by themselves, and that they are in certain emergencies reduced to dire extremities goes without saying. At this season of the year, when work is plentiful in the country, it is like pulling one's teeth to get some of them to leave the city, they preferring to bask in the sun about the wharves and take the chances of occasionally catching a catfish, than to accept work where the compensation would be certain. It is an ordinary picture in summer to encounter hale and hearty negro women, young girls and men—the latter in the minority—half asleep on the docks angling, and when the winter winds begin to sigh around their abodes they are, like the grasshopper in the fable, victims of want, and should their more diligent white acquaintances fail to come to their rescue suffering would ensue. There is no good reason why the majority of such could not lay up enough in the summer to enable them to battle through the winter months independently of any help. But the summer is whittled away in idleness and excursion trips, many of such as are described above refusing good homes when proffered, or if accepted should their pleasures in any way be abridged they are apt to leave their employer in the lurch and without warning. Heaven helps those who help themselves, and persons who willingly make themselves objects of commiseration should by no means be regarded as unfortunate.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS of the county held their regular meeting to-day at the Courthouse on Columbus street, there being present Mr. Frank Hume, chairman, and Messrs. F. S. Corbett, of Arlington District, and Walter G. Wilson, of Washington District.

H. H. Young, Clerk of the Court, presented his statement showing the amount of delinquent taxes received up to March 31st, 1890, as follows: to wit, State tax turned over to the Auditor of the State, $148.51; county tax turned over to the County Treasurer, $409.27.

It was ordered that Fred Hager, P. T. Birch, and J. N. Tunston, Road Superintendents of the county, be summoned to appear on the 4th Monday in July next to show cause why they should not be removed for neglect of duty.

Commonwealth's Attorney Clements was directed to set out all the law pertaining to the contract system of keeping roads in repair by contract, and report at the next meeting.

Walter G. Wilson was authorized to have repaired the bridge over Pimmett Run, near Chain Bridge, and F. S. Corbett was directed to superintend the bridge over Four Mile Run at the Seminary crossing.

The board adjourned to meet on the 4th Monday in July.

ENCAMPMENT.—A company of the cadet corps of St. John's Academy under the command of 1st Lieut. C. Arunah Rogers, will leave here to-morrow on the 9:10 a. m. train for Washington on a special car which will be attached to the 10 o'clock train for Baltimore. They will there take the 2:30 p. m. boat for Tolchester Beach, in Kent county, Md., opposite the mouth of the Patuxent, where they will go into camp until the 18th or 19th. An advance party, under the command of Capt. Wm. F. Caroe, jr., left yesterday with the tents and baggage, and will have everything in readiness when the cadets arrive. The principal of the Academy will accompany the cadets, as usual, but Capt. W. H. Sweeney, the teacher of mathematics, will remain here in charge of the school, the exercises of which will be continued for such cadets as do not go into camp.

A SAD SCENE.—A scene peculiarly touching, and one which produced sincere sympathy from all who were compelled to witness it, was enacted at the open grave of the late Mrs. Sadie Blankin yesterday afternoon. As has been already stated, the deceased left a large family of children, and upon arriving at the cemetery the ill-clothed father, upon realizing the terrible nature of his bereavement and the fact that his seven little ones are now motherless, was overcome by grief and fell in a swoon. Kind hands were quick to apply restoratives and equally kind lips to speak words of encouragement into his ears. The funeral ceremonies, after this slight interruption, were proceeded with, and at their conclusion the stricken father and his little ones, so early in life deprived of maternal care, were placed in a carriage and driven to their now darkened home.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild until about 2 o'clock when it became cloudy.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following case:

Pearl Robinson, arrested by officer Grady for vagrancy was sent to the work house for 60 days.

Henry Davis, arrested by officer Trier for disorderly conduct, was ordered to leave the city.

Fannie Braxton, colored, arrested by officer Trier for an assault on Gertrude Cole, also colored, was fined $1.50 as was also the complainant.

Two citizens, charged with being engaged in a difficulty on Royal street on Saturday evening last, were fined $1.50 each.

FREAKS OF AN ERRATIC MAN.—A stranger hereabouts, giving his name as Henry Davis, was arrested yesterday on complaint of persons in the southern section of the city, who charged him with acting in a disorderly and suspicious manner by terrifying women and threatening to shoot men who expostulated with him. The stranger was locked up and this morning brought before the Mayor, when he appeared about as sane as ordinary mortals. He was ordered to leave the city at once.

CITY SCHOOL BOARD.—An adjourned meeting of the City School Board was held last night with Mr. W. H. Marbury in the chair. The clerk was directed to have prepared the memorial medal and the certificates of distinction to be awarded to the pupils at the closing exercises. The Superintendent gave notice that the schools would be closed during the last week of the month and that he would give public notice of the order of such closing.

NOLLE PROSEQUI.—The United States Supreme Court having decided that the special license tax of $1,000 which the Virginia legislature imposed upon coupon brokers was unconstitutional, the case against Mr. George R. Shino, who was indicted in the Corporation Court of Fredericksburg for failing to pay said tax, was settled at the June term of that Court, a nolle prosequi having been entered by the Commonwealth's Attorney.

CASE COMPROMISED.—The cases growing out of the recent Pandemic Farm, Fairfax county, difficulty were all settled at Fairfax C. H. yesterday. The principal case was compromised, Mr. Enoch Cook and Mrs. Patterson each taking possession of their respective property. The assault cases were dismissed.

SONAL.—Mr. T. K. Bell, of Norfolk, who is the city to-day.

Miss Fiera Crozier, of Sultland, Md., is visiting Miss Viah Baggett.
