

THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 5, 1892.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 5:39; sun sets 6:21. High water 7:38 a. m. and 7:19 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section showers, followed by clearing and cooler, westerly winds.

PERSONAL.—A letter from the Warm Springs to the Richmond Dispatch says: "Mr. John Critcher, Jr., of Washington, gave a large euchre party during the week. Mrs. Boykin, of Richmond, won the first lady's prize, a gold hair ornament. Miss Nellie Fuller, of Washington, took second lady's prize, a pair of silver scissors. Mr. Wyndham Meredith, of Richmond, captured a lovely silver-plated pipe for the gentleman's prize."

Miss Lillie Hill, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Powell Hill, 820 West Grace street, returned to the city a few days ago, from the Roanoke and Sulphur Springs, whither she had been taken for the restoration of her health after an illness of four or five months. So far as can be discovered she was not benefited. She is much more feeble than when she left Richmond. The return trip was very trying on her. She is now quite ill at her home in this city. —Richmond Times.

Capt. J. V. Davis, who is now at Cresson Springs, Pa., writes that the guests at around fire, wearing wraps, overcoats, &c.

Mr. Lewis McKenzie has returned from a visit to Elkton and Bear Lick Springs.

Mayor Strauss is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Letterman, in Charlottesville. A letter from Westmoreland to the Northern Neck News says: "Miss Anita Robbins, a very pleasant young lady of Alexandria, who has been visiting at Cherry Grove, returned to her home last Wednesday to the regret of her many friends here."

Col. Edmund Berkeley, of Prince William, was in the city to-day.

Mrs. S. G. Brent has returned from the Fauquier Springs.

Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, of Richmond, is visiting relatives in this city—his old home.

Dr. M. W. O'Brien, who has been quite sick for the past week or so, is out again. He will leave to-morrow for Allegheny Springs.

Mr. J. R. Catton has returned from his vacation, which he spent in Philadelphia, Cresson Springs and Chicago. He says the buildings being erected and everything connected with the fair are on the most magnificent and extravagant plans.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with three prisoners but no lodgers at the station house.

The following cases were disposed of at the Mayor's office to-day:

Ann Williams, charged with stealing $8 from Jerry Dorsey, colored, while he was asleep in her house; continued.

Randolph Fountain, colored, drunk in the street; John Simms, colored, assault on his wife; a white man for being drunk on the street, and Andrew Whiting, colored, disorderly conduct, $2.50 each.

T. S. Rose, profane language on the street, $2.

Bertie Day, colored, assault on Mary Gibbons, and for disorderly conduct, $10.

Ed. Field, colored, assault on Emanuel Corbin, also colored, $5, and Emanuel Corbin, assault on Ed. Field, $5. It seems that the men had a quarrel on the old fair grounds on Saturday night about fighting dogs. The men finally got in a fight themselves during which they used stones, bottles and knives as weapons. Neither was much hurt and the evidence showed that one was as much at fault as the other.

Jas. Robinson, colored, from Richmond, charged with trying to steal a ride on a Washington-Southern train, was ordered to leave the city.

ESCAPED FROM THE SHERIFF.—A dispatch from Brentsville says: "About two weeks since Allen Dean, formerly a resident of this county, but who has recently resided in Alexandria county, was arrested in the lower portion of Prince William and lodged in jail here to await the arrival of the proper officer to take him to Alexandria to answer complaint lodged against him for stealing a set of harness. Sheriff Veitch, of Alexandria county, came here Saturday, went to the jail, handcuffed Dean and took him to Manassas, but after arriving there Dean made his escape. It is reported that after their arrival at Manassas Dean invited the sheriff to drink with him several times, which he did, and afterwards stole from his pocket the key to the handcuffs and made his escape. Dean is about 18 years old and is certainly at large."

Sheriff Veitch, who was in the city to-day, gives an entirely different version of the affair. He says he and Dean were in the hotel at Manassas making arrangements for supper, when the latter, observing that he was not being watched at the moment, jumped from a back window and made his escape, though every effort was made to recapture him.

THE OCCULTATION OF MARS took place yesterday morning under the most favorable conditions for the great number of persons who have no telescopes, and the moon, which will be full at 4:51 p. m. Tuesday, formed a nearly circular shield of silvery brightness. During the period of occultation, from 20 minutes past 1 o'clock until 2:08 a. m. the moon was low on the southwestern horizon. As Mars and the moon approached each other the brilliancy of the earth's satellite rendered Mars almost invisible to the naked eye, but by interposing the dark shadow of some building at short distance from the observer it was possible to watch the gradual approach of the planet and the satellite until the moment of immersion.

INSPECTION OF THE STATE TROOPS.—Col. J. Lane Stern, Assistant Inspector-General of Virginia, has arranged to inspect the volunteers under the law requiring an annual inspection and muster. As heretofore stated in the GAZETTE, the Alexandria Light Infantry will be inspected on the 8th. The other companies in the Third Regiment will be inspected as follows: Culpeper, September 9th, Company B; Charlottesville, 9th, Company D; Danville, 16th, Companies A and H; Chatham, 17th, Company K; Lynchburg, 19th, Company E; Fredericksburg, 30th, Company G. The report of the inspections is required by law to be filed early in October, and this will enable Col. Stern to get through this work in time for the fall terms of the courts, which begin in October.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chester presiding.—The grand jury being sworn returned the following indictments: Allen Dean, entering a house in the night time and larceny of a set of harness; Louis H. Crowe, malicious assault on Sarah G. Crowe; Chas. Green, petit larceny.

A number of witnesses were examined in reference to the reported gambling going on in the county, but no criminal evidence was elicited.

The hearing of the application for a new road from the Aqueduct bridge was continued and a protest from G. Vandewerke against such road was filed. Administration upon the estate of Walter G. Wilson was granted to his widow, Mildred A. Wilson.

A recommendation by the grand jury that, in view of the fact that the cholera is liable to invade this country, a suitable person be appointed in each magisterial district to look after the sanitary condition of the county was adopted, and the following were appointed: E. T. Sisson for Jefferson, R. R. Veitch for Arlington and Robert Walker for Washington district. Court adjourned for the term.

FUNERALS.—The remains of the late Benjamin Fugitt, whose death occurred last Thursday night, were deposited in Henderson's vault yesterday evening, and the funeral obsequies were attended by a deputation from Columbia Lodge of Odd Fellows, of Washington, of which the deceased had been a member. Potomac and Sarepta Lodges of Odd Fellows, of this city, a number of the members of Columbia Typographical Union and many others of his former friends and acquaintances. Rev. Mr. Rice, of the Second Presbyterian Church, was the officiating minister.

The funeral of the late Peter Egan, whose death occurred last Friday, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church. The remains were escorted to their last resting place by a large cortege of his friends in this city and from Fairfax county.

Mr. Wm. M. Bryant, formerly of this city, died in Washington yesterday morning. His remains were brought to this city this evening and privately interred in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

DEATH OF ANOTHER CITIZEN.—Mr. Cassius F. Lee, a well-known and respected citizen, died at his home, on Duke street, yesterday morning, after a three days' illness of inflammation of the stomach. The deceased was a son of the late Cassius F. Lee, and for a number of years had been one of Alexandria's active business men, conducting a plaster mill in the northeastern section of the city. Mr. Lee was a vestryman of Christ Church, and throughout the forty-nine years of his existence had followed the path of life which placed him among our most trustworthy and respected citizens. He leaves a widow and two children. The funeral will take place to-morrow evening at 4 o'clock.

A NUISANCE.—Considerable complaint is made of the manner in which the night soil of Washington is disposed of by the contractors. It seems that according to the stipulation they are required to convey it somewhere in the neighborhood of Broad creek, two or three miles below this city and bury it in trenches; but instead of carrying out the terms of the contract, it is alleged that much of the accumulations finds its way into the river while in transit, and that deposited in the place designated in their covenant is not effectually buried, and the emanations from it are affording just cause for complaint.

THE MILD TEMPERATURE of yesterday was much enjoyed by all classes, many of whom availed themselves of the opportunity to take strolls on the suburbs and out of the town. New Alexandria seemed to be the objective point of many, and that place had numerous visitors. The excursion boats did not have their usual Sunday crowds. The churches had good congregations. Most of the resident clergy have returned from their summer vacations and occupied their pulpits yesterday.

FAUQUIER DEMOCRATS.—The democrats of the Plains turned out in a body yesterday for a Saturday evening last and formed a "Cleveland, Stevenson and anti-force club." Dr. Henry Cochran was elected president and Robert Peyton and others vice presidents. Stirling speeches were made by Dr. E. P. Clarke and Bolling Robertson, esp. The club is determined that no stone shall be left unturned to show third partyism and republicanism that there is no abiding place for them in Fauquier.

OPERA HOUSE.—"Killarney and the Rhine," the attraction at the Opera House to-night, is different from all other dramas in which the Teuton and Celt are introduced, and free from the hackneyed exhibition business and the other caricatures of Irish peasant life. The play is a strong melo-drama, with songs, dances, funny sayings, strong situations and novel effects. The company includes Mr. J. E. Toole, Miss Minnie Jarboe, Mr. W. H. Harvey, Mr. James Ryan, and other capable artists.

SOUVENIR SPOONS.—As will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere, Messrs. R. C. Acton & Son have for sale a beautiful souvenir of Alexandria in the shape of a spoon. The spoon is very handsome and in the bowl is an excellent engraving of old Christ Church, while at the end of the handle is a representation of Washington. The Messrs. Acton are live, energetic men, and always have the newest things in the silverware and jewelry line.

THE SCHOOLS.—After a two months' holiday the public schools of the city were reopened to-day. The white schools are more largely attended than ever before, but the same can not be said of the colored schools, the attendance at the latter showing a falling off as compared with last year. Many of the private schools will open during the next two weeks.

Mr. W. H. Treake, who is employed as watchman at Messrs. W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf, had one of his ankles painfully bruised this morning by getting it caught between the bumpers of two cars. He was climbing between the cars when the train was backed by an engine. He was taken to his home on South Lee street in a carriage where he was attended by Dr. Kilstein.

A sand scow which had been loaded with lumber by Messrs. J. H. D. Smoot & Son Saturday for Gunston was swamped at their dock that night by the swells from passing steamers.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The price of sugar continues to advance.

A trunk has been laid under the railroad tracks at the corner of Henry and Queen streets.

The Richmond and Danville Railway Company yesterday laid another (making the third) track on Union street from Princess street north.

What appeared to be an infant's skull and a number of clay pipes were dug up at N.W. Alexandria on Saturday. They were about eight feet under ground.

A colored man on a Midland train became so disorderly on Saturday evening that at Clifton he was forcibly ejected from the car by the conductor assisted by some passengers.

This was Labor Day—made a legal holiday by the Virginia Legislature. All the laborers in this city worked as usual, while the banks were closed and the bankers and their clerks had holiday.

The roof of a shed at the wood and coal yard of Mr. J. R. Zimmerman, near the corner of Union and Queen streets, caught fire this morning, but the flames were extinguished without an alarm having been sounded.

A slight fire, caused it is thought by some one throwing a match among some rubbish, occurred to-day on one of the sheds at Messrs. F. A. Reed & Co's, ice wharf, but the flames were extinguished before any damage had been done.

The oyster is getting on the half shell, and the reel bird is getting on the toast; and with sausage only waiting the cold wave flag, there's much to make life worth living—barring the buckwheat trust.

William Harding, the Tenallytown street car conductor, who was shot in the groin with a pistol by his brother-in-law, Harris McSheen, on Friday night last, as mentioned in the GAZETTE, died at his residence about 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

Old Aunt Sina Ashley, who had been an inmate of the almshouse for some time past, died at that institution last night. She was born in Fluvanna county and said she was 115 years old. This is hardly probable, however, though she was a very old woman.

A number of Alexandrians who went to Washington on Saturday night to see the pugilist James J. Corbett spar were disappointed. Corbett appeared on the stage at Alhambra's, however, and said his trainer refused to allow him to spar lest he might injure his hands.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Free Thought Federation of America was organized at Chicago yesterday. The object of the federation is to resist the interference of the church in all matters pertaining to federal and municipal government.

A. L. Smith, of the Washington observatory, and W. C. Power, of Chicago, a member of the U. S. geodetic survey, are conducting a party of engineers through the central part of Pennsylvania for the purpose of locating a site for a national observatory. Brush mountain, near Altoona, is the most favorable site yet found.

One hundred and thirty-five of the rioting miners have been released at Wallace, Idaho. Indictments have been found against every one of them, but it is deemed best not to bring them to trial now but keep the indictments hanging over them as an incentive to good behavior.

The latest information concerning the Honduras revolution is that Gen. Nuiella, the insurgent leader, and eight men were captured on August 26th, and that the general would be court-martialed and shot. The capture and execution of Nuiella finally winds up the revolution.

Jules and Dufour Melard, two young Catholic colored men of New Orleans, have gone to Baltimore where they will study for the priesthood. Father Toltin, who was reared in Rome, is now the only colored priest in America.

Miss Florio Medina, leading lady in the "By Wits Outwitted" company, has mysteriously disappeared from Chicago and an active search is being made for her.

The trades and labor parades to-day in Chicago and St. Louis will be the largest of the kind ever witnessed in those cities.

A telephone from Hampton Beach, N. H., states that Mr. John G. Whittier is better to-day.

Foreign News.—VIENNA, Sept. 5.—A heavy thunder storm passed over a portion of Galicia yesterday. During the storm a farmhouse at Mosezanica was struck by lightning and set on fire. A number of soldiers were billeted at the farmhouse. Eight of them were killed and their bodies cremated, while seven others were seriously burned.

The markets open without change in prices since Saturday. Receipts of Flour are liberal and it is easy at current values. Wheat is still heavy, but choice milling grades seem to be wanted even at present extremely low figures, damaged and common samples are very hard to move; we quote fair to prime 70 to 73, (no Lancaster was offered to-day); other sorts 58 to 70 as to condition. Corn is firm at 57 to 58 for good and 53 to 55 for dry cut. Rye 55 to 58. Oats 37 to 40. Butter, Potatoes, Eggs, Vegetables and Fruits of all kinds are scarce, active and higher. Millfeed has advanced. Hay and Straw are steady.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET, Sept. 3.—Beef Cattle.—The demand for stock was only fair, and prices on good grades advanced a fraction, in sympathy with the West.
