

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 10, 1893.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 6:24; sun sets at 5:56. High water 8:30 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this season fair; warmer easterly winds.

PERSONAL.—The Fredericksburg Star says: Miss Evie Prescott and Miss Daingerfield, of Alexandria, are the guests of their relatives, Mr. Arthur Taylor and family.

Major H. W. Newby has received an appointment to do some special engineering work for the government in Washington and will leave for that State in a few days to be gone for about three months.

Capt. G. A. Mushbach has gone to New York on legal business.

Mr. Thomas Patterson continues extremely ill at his home on upper Queen street.

Miss Annie Lucas has returned from a pleasant month's visit to the west.

Mr. Ernest Aciton reached home today from Chicago where he was when he yesterday received intelligence of the death of his father.

Mayor Strauss has gone to Charlottesville to visit his daughter, Mrs. Leterman.

The members of the Chataqua Society were entertained by Miss Ella Duffey at her residence on South Fairfax street one night last week. A very pleasant evening was spent, during which there were renditions of music, recitations, &c. A sumptuous repast was served to all present.

Miss Mamie Graham, who has been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever, is out again.

Mrs. Peyton Randolph has returned from Amherst where she spent the summer.

FIGHT OVER AN EGG.—John Stevenson, a colored man, was arrested yesterday by Officer Arrington at the instance of his mother, who charged him with striking and knocking her down. The trouble originated over the ownership of an egg. The mother claimed that a hen belonging to her little grandson deposited the egg, while her son was positive a specimen of the feather tribe belonging to him had brought it forth. The dispute culminated in a scuffle, during which the old woman was knocked down. The son claimed he felt his hen before the egg was laid and demonstrated to his satisfaction it was to be pointed one, while those he asserted laid by the hen belonging to his nephew were of the blunt pattern. In answering the charge of knocking his mother down he told a plausible story: The old woman, he said, struck him on the elbow with a cobble stone which so paralyzed his arm that it fell with its own weight against his mother's jaw and knocked her down. He was fined $2.50 this morning for allowing it to fall in the old woman's face.

CITY COUNCIL.—The first regular meeting of the City Council since last July will be held to-night. During the recess the chambers of both boards have been renovated, and they now present a most inviting appearance. The walls have been artistically and tastefully papered and the furniture varnished. The cornices in the ceilings have been rendered secure and the unsightly gap in the south wall of the Aldermen's chamber no longer exists, nor do any of the cracks or apertures that were visible in both chambers a few months ago. Mayor Strauss will send a message to Council to-night in which he will make sundry recommendations, among them one regarding the use of the old Sun engine house for police purposes, and another respecting the stone in what was once the Alexandria Canal. The Mayor suggests that the stone be utilized for improving the unpaved streets of the city, and that the members of the chain gang be employed in breaking it up.

EASTERN BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.—The installation of the local board of directors of the Eastern Building and Loan Association of Syracuse, N. Y., was held at the office of Mr. Leonard Marbury, attorney for the company, yesterday evening at 2:30. There were present Messrs. I. C. O'Neal, president; Leonard Marbury, attorney; H. A. Moser, general agent; Thos. H. Bayne, secretary and treasurer; A. A. Wardell, J. R. N. Curtin, Calvin Butts, and N. Z. Seitz, managers of the Washington agency. Mr. Seitz, upon being invited to address the meeting, made an eloquent address, in which he begged his hearers to remember the great work now being done by building associations, and of the trust reposed in them of being the representatives of the most progressive, aggressive, and greatest of all the building and loan associations. The company has assets amounting to $1,049,834.05. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Seitz, and upon motion the meeting adjourned.

TWO OF A KIND.—Officer Griffin while in the neighborhood of "hard corner" last night saw a colored woman named Sarah Alexander tumble out of a saloon before the fist of one Wm. Ford, an ungallant individual, as black as the woman. The officer started after the man, but the latter took to his heels and was soon lost in the labyrinth of shanties in "Petersburg."

Officers McCuen and Young found him later and this morning he was fined $2.50. The woman, who was drunk, it seems, undertook to prevent Ford from talking to another woman, and he had struck her in order to release himself from her clutches. She was fined $1 for drunken and disorderly conduct.

OPERA HOUSE.—Flynn and Sheridan's "City Sports" will be at the Opera House Saturday, October 14. The ladies are all good looking and shapely, and the ballets and statuary posing are new, attractive, and free from any objectionable features. Connie Leslie is as charming as ever. Crissie Sheridan is another prime favorite. Mile. Zittella is a lovely woman and is equal to every role of her versatile parts. She is both pretty and talented. Thompson and Duclos, the baselo soloists and comedians, are clever and original; in fact, the whole company is immense. The first and after-pieces are entertaining and amusing, and the costumes are remarkably rich and elegant.

"APRIL FOOL" was last night admirably presented at the Opera House before a large audience by Gus Williams' Comedy Company. The piece is a very fine light comedy, and each member of the company was a star.

NOMINATING CONVENTION.

A Divided Household.—Mr. Caton's Delegates retire from the Convention—Those Remaining Organize and Nominate Mr. Bendheim—Great Confusion and Excitement.

The city democratic committee held a meeting yesterday evening to settle the question of the apportionment of delegates to the convention which met in this city to-day to nominate a candidate for the legislature from this city and county. As stated in the GAZETTE of that day the committee met in secret session, and after a long conference decided to allow Messrs. J. R. Caton and Chas. Bendheim, the two legislative candidates in this city, to name ten delegates each and to leave to the convention to settle the question of whether the city's vote should be cast according to its number of delegates or its voting strength, and also the question of how the fractional vote should be divided between the two candidates.

The doors were then opened and the county committee met the city committee in joint session. The county committee were a little miffed at not having been invited to take part with the city committee in the latter's deliberations, and wanted to know "what they were there for." They wanted the city committee to give Mr. Caton 10 delegates, Mr. Bendheim 9 and the county 1. This request the city committee declined to accede to, holding that the county man, Mr. Thompson, having received only 14 votes in the city was not entitled to a city delegate.

The various legislative candidates were then invited to meet the city committee. Mr. Caton ceased the committee for not allowing him to make a statement and present his case before they had taken definite action; they had rendered a decision before hearing the case.

Mr. Bendheim interrupted Mr. Caton and said the committee could have taken no other action than that taken by them; if they had done otherwise their action would have disrupted the democratic party in the city; he thought Mr. Caton's course was child's play. This remark brought a show-up report from Mr. Caton and for a time there was quite a lively discussion between the two candidates.

Messrs. W. W. Douglas and Chas. Thompson, two of the county candidates, then addressed the committee expressing their satisfaction with the action of the city committee. Mr. Douglas said he would be a candidate before the convention and Mr. Thompson said the committee had done right in giving each of the city candidates ten delegates; he would come to the convention with the county's five delegates and would get the nomination.

The city committee then authorized Chairman Barley to certify to the convention the names of the city's twenty delegates—ten to be named by Mr. Caton and ten by Mr. Bendheim.

The convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature met at 12 o'clock to-day at the Opera House. The convention was composed of the following delegates:

Named by Mr. J. R. Caton: M. B. Harlow, John G. Beckham, John M. Johnson, R. F. Knox, John W. May, J. D. Normyle, Douglas Stuart, Albert Fair, William H. Breen and Thomas Downey.

Named by Mr. Charles Bendheim: S. G. Brent, Wm. Rogers, M. P. Vincent, C. Hatley Norton, L. Bendheim, C. B. Marshall, R. N. Crook, F. Church, G. W. Fisher and R. H. Atkinson.

Chosen in the county: Geo. Saulsbury in Jefferson district, J. W. Clarke and C. B. Graham in Arlington district, and Jacob Birch and Wm. Payne in Washington district.

The county sent five delegates under the impression that the county had cast over 450 democratic votes at the last Presidential election, when in fact but 340 democratic votes had been cast at that election which only entitled the county to three delegates in the convention.

At twelve minutes after 12 o'clock Mr. L. C. Barley, chairman of the city committee, called the convention to order and announced that the first business in order would be the selection of a chairman.

Mr. S. G. Brent moved that Mr. C. B. Graham, of the county, be elected to that position.

Before the question had been put Mr. M. B. Harlow asked Mr. Barley how many delegates the city was entitled to in the convention.

Mr. Barley answered twenty.

Mr. Harlow then asked how many delegates the county was entitled to.

Mr. Barley replied that the county was entitled to three on the basis of its democratic vote cast at the last Presidential election.

This ruling produced considerable dissatisfaction, and a county man desired a certificate from the clerk of the court in order that the exact vote of the county could be ascertained.

Mr. J. M. Johnson then read a certificate signed by Mr. H. H. Young, clerk of the County Court, giving Jefferson district, 50; Arlington, 166; Washington, 121.

It was suggested that those figures were based upon the vote for Harrison. Chairman Barley reiterated that the county was entitled to but three delegates.

Mr. J. G. Beckham moved that, as the county had five delegates present, the convention adjourn to some future day and that the county delegation go home and re-elect delegates on the basis of their democratic vote.

Mr. Harlow spoke to the same purpose.

Mr. S. G. Brent said the convention had assembled to do something, and he was opposed to any revolutionary measures. The county had come to the convention with five delegates, which he believed it was entitled to.

Mr. Harlow said he was a member of the State democratic convention which nominated Col. O'Ferrall for Governor. The county on that occasion had cast but three votes.

Mr. Brent controverted this and said the county had cast five votes in the convention referred to.

Mr. John M. Johnson wanted a rule to prevail which would govern the city and county alike. It so happened that the minority would be represented in the city, but not in the county. The county was present with only a majority representation and the city with both a majority and minority representation.

Mr. Brent renewed his motion and Mr. Harlow still denied the county a right to participate in the organization. The chairman said he didn't believe the county delegation of five members a legally organized body, so ruled.

Mr. C. B. Graham, chairman of the county committee, and a delegate, said the county would present but three delegates.

Mr. Johnson moved that the convention adjourn and that the county elect a delegation on the basis of the vote to which it was entitled.

Mr. W. H. Breen did not think the county delegation legally organized.

Mr. Brent asked by what right the chairman made the ruling that the county was not properly represented in the convention. He held that the convention should decide that matter.

Mr. Harlow moved to adjourn and that the county be requested to elect three delegates.

Several persons started to speak and the greatest confusion prevailed.

A gentleman from the county said the county claimed but three delegates; another said they were entitled to five.

Mr. Harlow asked who had authorized the chairman to make the ruling that the county was not properly represented in the convention. He held that the convention should decide that matter.

I HAVE been a sufferer from catarrh for years. Having tried a number of remedies advertised as "sure cures" without obtaining any relief, I had resolved never to take any other patent medicine, when a friend advised me to try Elgin's Cream Balm. I did so with great reluctance, but can now testify that after using it for six weeks I believe myself cured. It is a most agreeable remedy—an invaluable balm.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn.
