

DOUGLAS DEFEATS GLOTH FOR ARLINGTON STATE'S ATTORNEY

FIELDS WINNER IN VOTE FOR SHERIFF

Commonwealth's Attorney Out After Eight-Year Tenure; Reid 2-to-1 Victor

Sweeping every precinct in Arlington County with the exception of Arlington, the home precinct of William C. Gloth, Lawrence W. Douglas, youthful law partner of Senator Frank L. Ball, defeated the field of four candidates who faced him in his battle for the post of Commonwealth's attorney.

Douglas' overwhelming defeat of Gloth, who has held the office eight years, was the outstanding feature of yesterday's election. Gloth's defeat was predicted as early as 11 o'clock last night, when only five of the 11 precincts had been heard from, and before midnight the election of Douglas was conceded.

Benefits by Attacks
Conducting a quiet campaign and taking no part in the attacks upon Mr. Gloth's record, Douglas reaped the advantages that such attacks held without being made a party to them.

With reports from one precinct in Clarendon still missing, Douglas' vote was 2,691 to Gloth's 1,924. Clarence R. Ahalt, Republican nominee, was the runner up with a total of 1,459 votes.

With one precinct still missing, Sheriff Howard B. Fields, running for reelection, rolled up the largest majority he has ever gained over his perennial rival, A. C. Clements. Sheriff Fields is leading Clements by a vote of 2,736 to 1,575.

Duncan a Poor Third
Edward Duncan, considered Field's most formidable rival because of his 24 years' experience on the county board of supervisors, polled a meager 406 votes. In the only straight-cut, party battle, Hugh Reid, Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, defeated J. Foster Hagan, Republican, by 2 to 1.

John Warwick Rust, of Fairfax, Democratic nominee for the State senate, swept the entire Thirtieth Senatorial district by a vote of more than 12 to 1 over a Republican nominee, W. L. Norford, an independent, L. C. Painter, and a Socialist, Julia Morgan Jones.

Commissioners Undecided
Today, 28 hours after the polls opened yesterday, the weary election judges are still busy counting ballots for the county board of commissioners, two of the largest precincts still remaining unreported this morning. It is almost a certainty, however, that Arlington will have its first woman board member in Mrs. Elizabeth B. Magruder, who commanded large majorities in all of the precincts which have reported and this morning had 1,289 votes, the third highest total thus far.

Fred A. Gosnell Leads
Fred A. Gosnell, Republican nominee, has the highest vote, 1,585; Harry A. Fellows is second, with 1,491; John C. Gall is fourth, with 1,283, and Lyman M. Kelley is fifth, with 1,053.

The five runners-up, who may go into the lead when Arlington and Clarendon Precinct No. 1 reports, were William Hull, George Ricker, W. A. E. McShea, E. C. Turnburke and F. Freeland Chew. With his home precinct unreported, B. M. Hedrick, Republican nominee, is conceded the election to the newly-created office of a trial justice. He is leading his nearest opponent, Walter U. Varney, by 335 votes, receiving 2,177 to Varney's 1,842.

Harry K. Green, commissioner of revenue, carried the county by a 9-to-1 vote over C. W. Clever, Republican.

E. Wade Ball, treasurer, was unopposed.

Support Fertilizer Law, Farmers Urged

Co-operation of Maryland farmers in enforcing the new State fertilizer law, effective January 1, 1932, is asked by the extension service of Maryland University according to A. H. Snyder, extension editor.

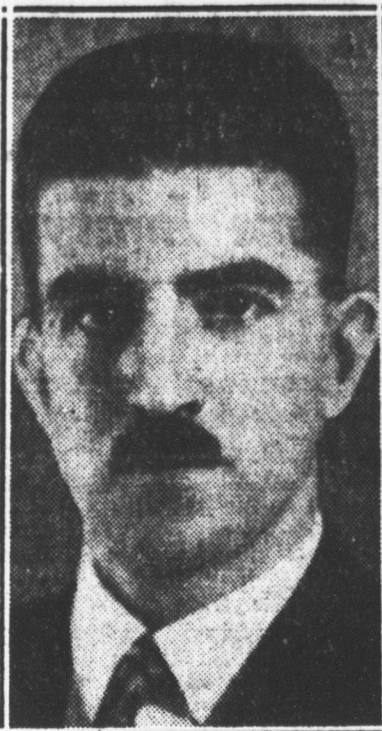

The statute, passed at the last session of the legislature as a result of a movement for uniform fertilizer laws in all Northeastern States, is aimed to protect buyers from misleading or untrue advertising by fertilizer dealers.

Silver Spring Moves To Obtain Library

Definite steps to obtain a permanent public library serving the Silver Spring area will be taken Friday evening, November 13, when the organization committee will meet at the county suburban building, with representatives of 20 or more civic and other organizations of the vicinity.

The organization committee is composed of Mrs. Lloyd Beers, chairman; Dr. Howell Forsyth, treasurer; J. Guy Neel, secretary, and Miss Lavinia Engle, Mrs. C. W. Mitchell, Paul Coughlan and Dr. Clifton Waller.

Ice skating in the Adirondacks from the first of November to the first of April is the best recollection of Mrs. Amelia Stevenson, 949 Shepherd St. N. W., entered in the "Things I Remember Back Home" contest.

Entries are pouring in to the Washington Times in the competition for guest tickets to the Seth Parker picture, "Way Back Home," at RKO Keith's Theater. Daily for a week, beginning tomorrow, six pairs of tickets will be given.

Its First Production
The production is the first ever made by the famous radio company, which thrills listeners each Sunday night with homely humor and music from Jonesport, Me. Enough incidents for a dozen more productions have already been described in letters in the Times contest.

'OLD DOMINION' DEMOCRATS TRIUMPH

Virginia Shakes Off G. O. P. Hold as Jeffersonians Reassert Power in Election

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 4 (I.N.S.).—Returns from all sections of the "Old Dominion" indicated the State had shaken off the Republican hold which it felt in 1928 and again elected a Democratic general assembly. The Democrats were victorious even in the southwestern section, a Republican stronghold.

Norfolk, city and county, represented in Congress by the Republican, Menalucus Lankford, elected entire Democratic slates, and gave a big lead to State Senators A. P. Staple and Robert J. Noell.

In the Harrisonburg district, represented in Congress by the Republican, Jacob Garber, Aubrey Weaver, Democrat, is leading John Morrison, Republican, for the State senate.

Owen Bard and Sam C. Salzel, Democrats, were leading John D. Miller and Howard Ziegler, Republicans, for the house of delegates. At Clintwood in the Cumberland mountain district, H. M. Southerland, Democrat, apparently was victorious over his Republican opponent in the race for the State legislature.

Mrs. Emma Lee White, only woman member of the general assembly, representing Gloucester and Mathews counties, was re-elected to the house of delegates.

KILLING TRAGEDY TO JEALOUSY

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Jealousy, officers believe, prompted Thomas Eversole, 45, to kill Mrs. Charles Thompson at the home of his brother, William Eversole, near Keyser, Mineral county.

Eversole is at Keyser hospital suffering from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the neck. He shot himself when surrounded by officers.

The woman was killed by a shotgun charge fired into her face from close range. When questioned by authorities after his capture Eversole told them that there had been "a misunderstanding between Mrs. Thompson and myself."

The officers stated that the shooting victim's husband recently had been released from the State penitentiary where he had served a term and it was their theory that jealousy was the motive back of the crime.

Eversole, who is unmarried, resided at the home of his brother as did Mrs. Thompson and her mother.

12 Army Planes Fly In Altitude Tests

Twelve Army pursuit planes of the Ninety-fourth Squadron, Selfridge Field, yesterday landed at Bolling Field after a 14-hour flight from the Michigan air base. During most of the non-stop flight the 12 planes flew far above the clouds until after passing Pittsburgh.

The pilots, commanded by Lieut. Harry Johnson, wore oxygen masks and air tanks for the flight which was in the nature of a test of the ability of Army planes to maintain a high altitude on a lengthy flight.

Free Apple Offer Cleans Up Orchard

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 4.—C. J. Wright, owner of an orchard on the outskirts of Waynesboro, inserted an item in a local paper to the effect that he would give apples to anyone who came for them. The following day scores of people appeared and by afternoon more than 1,000 bushels of apples had been picked and the whole orchard had been cleaned of apples.

The Child's Appetite Will Always Respond

Do you remember how the grocer slapped a potato on the snout of the kerosene can to keep the oil from leaking out? Did you ever wear a bag of asafetida around your neck to ward off disease?

How about the time the circus rolled into town on wagons, and you helped the clowns and acrobats pitch the big tent and water the elephants?

Was It a Show Boat

Maybe you have heard the callope of the show boat as it neared one of the sleepy river towns on the Ohio or Mississippi, and rushed down with half the population to see the craft round the bend and tie up at the pier. Sent in your recollections to the "Things I Remember" editor of The Washington Times.

Admiral Cites Policeman

ADMIRAL BRISTOL CHARING that Policeman S. F. Malone was discourteous to him, Admiral Mark L. Malone, U. S. N., today appeared as a complainant when the policeman faced the Police Trial Board.

POLICE SCORED FOR RUDENESS

Policeman Sidney F. Malone was roundly scored today for lack of courtesy and diplomacy by Inspector Ogden T. Davis at the Police Trial Board. Discourtesy charges against Malone grew out of a parking row, the officer had with Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, U. S. N., on October 6.

Inspector Davis said: "Your whole attitude shows lack of diplomacy and courtesy."

Davis, who is chairman of the trial board, indicated policeman "were too ready" to pass out tickets for parking violations.

WOMAN SNIPES GOV. RITCHIE ON SPEECH

Mrs. Nicholson Cites Attack On Hoover, Asks Maryland Leader for His Plan

Governor Albert C. Ritchie was called on today to give some specific cures for the depression.

The request was made by Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson, president of the National Women's Democratic Enforcement League, and follows an address made by the Governor in Boston in which he took President Hoover to task for the depression. The letter to the Governor said in part:

"The press reports you as blaming President Hoover for not better allaying the evils that this depression is heir to, surplus cotton, wheat, unemployment, and you add your usual blast against prohibition. You then propose as remedy to 'retrace our steps and re-establish the creed which Jefferson won against Hamilton,' by which I understand you to mean, 'let the State rather than the nation do it.'"

"You might also inform us how your 'States' rights' doctrine which you claim is a cure-all has not prevented the many bank failures in our own State under your administration."

RESERVES HEAR MRS. HOOVER

Mrs. Herbert Hoover cut a birthday cake yesterday in Barker Hall as 300,000 Girl Reserves through the country entered on a week's celebration of their golden jubilee.

The First Lady, who was greeted on her arrival by a special reception committee, dressed in the Reserves blue and white uniforms, gave an informal talk to the members.

President Hoover today will receive a delegation of Girl Reserves, led by Miss Mary Lesca Wakeman, who will present a formal petition asking for a "strong program for the reduction of all forms of armaments at the world disarmament conference in 1932."

Mrs. William Mitchell, wife of the Attorney General, will address the Reserves tomorrow.

GOLFING PUZZLE CLEAR, YET PUZZLING

Capital Explanations of Rift "Very Clear, Indeed," Say Baltimoreans

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—Conceding that further explanations over the awarding of trophies at the National Women's Country Club tournament at Washington last Thursday are needless, Baltimore golfers who took part are still wondering why they were invited.

"Very Clear, Indeed"
The explanations to date are very clear, according to Miss Edith McHenry, one of the participants, who said: "I doubt whether all the president's generals and all the generals' wives could make it more so."

However, said Miss McHenry: "I want to make it clear, I am more than willing to back Mrs. Jerome Solman in everything she has said. Her statements have been absolutely correct. She did win the low net prize. The Baltimore players were invited to participate by Mrs. Frank R. Keefer, a member of the club's committee."

Mrs. Keefer is the wife of Brig. Gen. Frank R. Keefer, U. S. Medical Corps (retired), and former aide to the surgeon general.

Prize List Changed

Five of the eight Baltimore women who were in the tournament entered with their State handicaps, according to Miss McHenry.

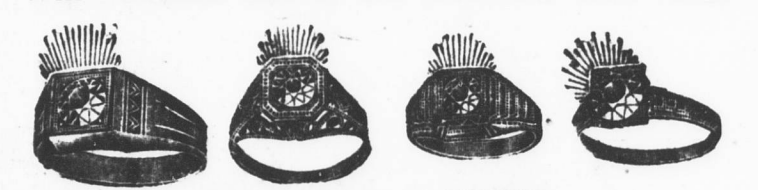

Mrs. Solman's name was first posted as winner of low net prize. After lunch the list of awards had been changed, the low net being awarded to Mrs. J. O. Rhyne. Baltimore women contend that it is a well-known rule, albeit one which has caused confusion before, that once posted, lists stand.

A SINGLE "IF"

The promises made by the bottlers of California Syrup of Figs are true—and it will do the same for you—IF it's genuine CALIFORNIA Syrup of Figs. Don't accept any bottle that does not plainly say CALIFORNIA. Every druggist has the genuine.

To The Mothers Whose Children Won't Eat

A Simple Way to correct Poor Appetite

NATURE knows best. Never coax a child to eat! Remove the cause of a youngster's poor appetite. When appetite fails, tongue is coated white, eyes are a bilious yellow, don't give small children a constipating cathartic that drains the system and weakens twenty feet of tender bowels! California syrup of figs is all the "medicine" they require.

The Child's Appetite Will Always Respond

Specialists will tell you that a sluggish appetite almost always means the child has a sluggish colon. Correct this condition called stasis, and see how quickly a listless, drooping boy or girl begins to eat—and gain! The only "medicine" such children need is pure, unadulterated syrup of figs.

California syrup of figs is doing wonderful things for ailing, sickly children all over the United States. Children who get syrup of figs, now and then, soon have the appetite and energy of young animals! They keep well and avoid colds and sluggish spells.

Begin Tonight

Nature never made a finer laxative for children; and they all love the wholesome, fruity flavor of the real California syrup of figs. It's purely vegetable, but every druggist has it all bottled, with directions. Begin with it at once. The very next day, your child will be eating better and feeling better. Keep on with the syrup of figs a few days and you will see the most amazing improvement in appetite, color, weight, and spirits.
