Waiting for the Returns.

Strange as it may appear, there was more interest manifested by Alexandrians last night in the result of the election in New York and Maryland than in that in this city or the State at large. Alexandria was known to be safely Democratic, and it was a foregone conclusion that the Old Dominion had no idea of getting out of the democratic column where it has been for these many years. There was a natural desire to see the sister State, Maryland, emerge from her eclipse, and the crowd which gathered on King street and watched the screen as the bulletins were flashed upon it read with delight every indication of Warfield's election. The returns from New York were as anxiously awaited, and while McClellan's thermometer was making a steady climb and Low's falling there was manifest satisfaction among the eager throngs. Tammany Hall was redoubled and "fusionists" were seeking storm cellars. Their sway had been meteoric, and the wigwag was not only a reminiscence of revolutionary days, but a mighty power once more. One of the bulletins was a telegram of congratulation from Low to his successful competitor, and many left for their homes after that had been displayed. The success of the democrats in Maryland, however, was not so much an assured fact, and numbers still lingered, loth to leave until something definite could be learned. As the hours wore away the crowd became thinner and finally disappeared altogether. There was no doubt concerning the result in New York, but as the hour of midnight drew near the returns from Maryland, while encouraging for the democrats, were not as positive in their declarations as those from New York.

As was stated yesterday, the election in this city was spirited, but a small vote was polled. Less than 650 votes were cast out of a total registration of 1,930 of which 1,781 were white and 149 colored. Mr. James R. Caton, the democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, received 602. He had no opposition. Mr. Lewis H. Machen, the democratic nominee for the State senate, polled 501 votes, as against 144 cast for Dr. F. M. Brooks, of Fairfax county, his republican opponent.

The vote was as follows: First ward—Machen, 93; Brooks, 28. Second ward—Machen, 93; Brooks, 14. Third ward—Courthouse precinct, Machen, 103; Brooks, 46. Third ward—Friendship precinct, Machen, 124; Brooks, 16. Fourth ward—Machen, 88; Brooks, 40. The vote cast for Mr. Caton was as follows: First ward, 111; Second ward, 102; Third ward, Courthouse precinct, 185; Friendship precinct, 184; Fourth ward, 120.

While Alexandria city caused no concern to democrats, considerable curiosity was manifested as to the outcome in the county, where an attempt had been made to oust all the present incumbents—sheriff, treasurer, commonwealth's attorney, commissioner of the revenue and supervisors. At a late hour the result could not be definitely learned, and the official vote was not obtained until this morning.

The following is the list of the county officers elected: Commonwealth's Attorney, Crandall Mackey, by plurality; Sheriff, W. H. Palmer, by 143 majority; Treasurer, W. C. Wilbirt, by 163 majority; Commissioner of Revenue, C. B. Graham, by 108 majority.

The vote in detail is as follows: Jefferson district—Commonwealth's Attorney, Johnston 68, Mackey 43, Varney 75; Sheriff, Palmer 65, Works 1, Marcey 13, Duncan 100; Commissioner of Revenue, Holmes 43, Graham 97, Thomas 16, Gray 22; Treasurer, Wilbirt 95, Darby 80.

Arlington district—Commonwealth's Attorney, Johnston 178, Mackey 171, Varney 41; Sheriff, Palmer 207, Works 10, Marcey 110, Duncan 64; Commissioner of Revenue, Holmes 162, Graham 164, Thomas 89, Gray 46; Treasurer, Wilbirt 251, Darby 151.

Washington district—Commonwealth's Attorney, Johnston 75, Mackey 109, Varney 3; Sheriff, Palmer 81, Works 0, Marcey 60, Duncan 46; Commissioner of Revenue, Holmes 72, Graham 69, Thomas 38, Gray 5; Treasurer, Wilbirt 118, Darby 70.

The district officers elected are as follows: Jefferson district—Supervisor, D. N. Rust; Magistrates, J. W. Slater, J. F. Haney and I. C. Barrell; Constable, J. H. Cornell.

Arlington district—Supervisor, W. W. Douglas; Magistrates, J. R. Hogan, E. I. Thompson and A. B. East; Constable, E. E. Veitch.

Washington district—Supervisor, W. N. Feby; Magistrates, R. W. Sanders, E. L. Marcey and J. S. Smith; Constable, J. E. Evans.

Enjoyable Affair.

George Mason Council, No. 1718, Royal Arcanum, held an interesting meeting last night, and after the adjournment of the council the members and invited guests reassembled at Mrs. Christina Bohren's dining room, on Columbus street, near King, where a splendid collation had been spread. W. H. Hurcamp, of Fredericksburg, Grand Orator, Past Grand Regent R. W. Arnold and Messrs. H. K. Field and J. E. Shinn, of Alexandria Council, were present. The gathering was one of the happiest in the history of the Royal Arcanum in Alexandria, and all enjoyed themselves greatly. At the termination of the banquet short and suitable speeches were made by Grand Orator Hurcamp, Past Grand Regent Arnold, and Messrs. Shinn, Isadore Brown, N. Wollberg, George H. Harlow, J. R. Mansfield, M. Jaffa and William Wheatley, Mr. Isadore Brown, who was chairman of the entertainment committee, devoted his personal attention to the company. He had anticipated everything which could in any manner have added to the comfort and enjoyment of those present. At a late hour the company adjourned carrying with them happy recollections of the evening's experience.

Mr. Winter Crupper, watchman in the Washington-Southern Railway yards in this city, chased a number of negroes, who were acting suspiciously, from the premises last night. One in his flight left his hat.

Wharf for King Capsico.

President Woodberry, First Vice President Norman, Second Vice President and Manager Callahan, of the Norfolk and Washington line of steamers, spent yesterday at King Capsico, on the Potomac river, in Westmoreland county, looking into the advisability of building a wharf there where steamers will stop on their way from Washington to Norfolk and return. It is intended to build an electric line from the wharf to other points in the northern neck. The gentlemen were pleased with the outlook, and it is thought it will not be long before work will be commenced on the wharf. King Capsico is about five hours' run from Alexandria.

Deaths.

Mrs. Tabitha Cook, wife of Mr. David B. Cook, died at her home on Gibbon street, between Washington and Columbus, at an early hour this morning.

Mrs. Virginia L. Quinn, wife of Mr. Patrick Quinn, died at her residence in this city last night. The deceased was 27 years old. She was a daughter of the late George W. Laycock.

Miss Nannie Everett, a former resident of this city, died in Washington yesterday. Her remains will be brought here for interment. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Palmer, who at one time conducted the millinery business in Alexandria.

Second Presbyterian Church.

The special services in the Second Presbyterian Church last night were equally as interesting as those of preceding nights this week. The attendance was encouraging, the services spirited and the sermon of Rev. Mr. Sibley animating. His text was from the Epistle of James, 4th chapter and 4th verse. The reverend gentleman handled his theme in a masterly manner, and his discourse was listened to with close attention throughout. Services will be continued tonight. The few in the church are free and a cordial welcome awaits all who desire to attend.

The Gas Works.

A meeting of the committee on light was held last night when a general discussion of light matters was had. The construction of the coal shed, etc., was put in the hands of City Engineer Dunn. It was decided to request Mr. McIlhenny, of Washington, to come here and examine the gas plant which has just been rebuilt. Satisfactory results have not been obtained for some time, and the complaint of the inferior quality and scant supply of gas is becoming quite general.

Railroad Accidents.

Two flat cars were smashed on the Manassas branch of the Southern Railway last night. The accident was caused by the parting of a freight train. The running of trains over the road was interrupted for some time by the accident.

Several cars jumped the track in the Southern yard in this city last night. One was thrown across the track and somewhat damaged.

Auction Sales Tomorrow.

Capt. R. F. Knox will sell at public auction tomorrow at noon in front of the premises a tenement and lot of ground situated in Fairfax county near the corporation line. Capt. Knox will also offer for sale at the same time a six-room frame house adjoining the above.

Mr. R. H. Cox, City Sergeant, will offer for sale at noon tomorrow at No. 205 King street three pianos, two organs and a number of household utensils.

Columbia Fire Company.

The regular monthly meeting of the Columbia Fire Company will be held tonight. The company has requested the Board of Fire Wardens to furnish emergency ladders for the hose wagon. They are in the shape of small extension ladders, and upon the breaking out of a fire can be joined together and in a few moments placed to second-story windows. They have been found of great utility in Washington and other cities.

Washington Memorial Medals.

Mr. A. J. Weidern, secretary of the Washington Monument Association, has received samples of the bronze memorial medals which are to be disposed of in raising funds with which to construct a monument to the father of the country. A well-executed vignette of Washington appears on the face, while on the reverse he is represented as a farmer, surveyor and fireman.

Suit for Salvage.

The James Clark Company, of Baltimore, Md., instituted proceedings yesterday in admiralty in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against the ferry-boat Columbia and her owners for $5,000 salvage. It is claimed that the Clark Company's steam tug Sarah and her crew prevented the Columbia from being totally destroyed by fire in Washington on May 13 last.

Police Court.

[Mayor G. L. Simpson presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Rodina Newman and Charles Carver, both colored, arrested by Officer Griffin for gambling, were fined $5 each.

Hester Smith, colored, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with assault, was fined $5.

Y. M. S. L.

An interesting meeting of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum was held last night at which considerable business of interest to the organization was transacted. It was decided to give a complimentary euchre party next Tuesday night.

Personal.

Mr. D. J. Green, representing the Corby bakery of Washington, was in the city today. Mr. Charles Pidgeon, a well-known farmer of lower Fairfax county, and a prominent member of the Woodlawn Farmers' Club, has disposed of his effects and removed to Washington, where he has secured a position in the Land Office.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopelessly resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, Price 50c, and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

MEDICINAL.

IN ALEXANDRIA

Every Claim is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Alexandria, what can it be?

Charles N. Ranch, broom manufacturer, corner Queen and Cameron streets, residence 223 north Royal street, says: "If the heavy lifting incurred at my calling was not the primary cause of backache and kidney complaint, attacks of which occurred during three years, it certainly aggravated them. I quit the occupation and commenced broom making. Although this was easier on the back the work being lighter, the aching still continued. Sometimes it was so severe that I could scarcely stand it. I was under the care of leading physicians, some of whose treatment helped me transiently, but none permanently. Deciding to use Doan's Kidney Pills I went to E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store for a box. Without being able to positively state that they have gone to the root of kidney complaint and thoroughly eradicated it, the treatment forces me to say that this remedy is certainly a specific for the kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.
